I think one of the most important and under-emphasized parts of Jesus' ministry was to reveal the Father. In John 1:18 it says: No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him.

The bosom speaks of the heart of God. Jesus, the Word made flesh came from the very heart of God to reveal Him as Abba.

We can look unto Jesus the Word of God to see the Father as Abba, and see the good view and opinion that Abba has of you in Him; and the very cry of the Spirit within us is "Abba Father!"

The question I began to ask Jesus was, "How did You see God as Abba in the scriptures," when no one else for 4000+ years of recorded history had seen Him that way?

Shouldn't we now through the Spirit, knowing the end from the beginning, be able to see what Jesus saw?

Since David was described as a man after God's own heart (Jesus), I thought the Psalms would be a great place to start looking. These writings were birthed from that question.

How Jesus saw God as Abba in the Psalms

Psalm 1

Blessed is the man who sees in Me; how on bended knee Abba has adored and blessed him with the life He promised them from the beginning; He persuades My heart, and His council keeps Me from all the ways contrary to His life that could injure Me; and the voice of the stranger I will not follow;

I am overjoyed when I think about Abba's teaching and instruction of life; it captivates My heart and mind constantly.

The sure foundation of Abba's life has set My heart at rest and planted Me like a tree that has a never-ending flow of food and water, feeding and clothing Me with all the fruit of Abba's life, Abba's life never sees corruption but is ever in Me advancing and prospering Me in all things.

The ones who refuse to partake in Abba's life for free but rather labor and toil to establish their own life don't even see how death animates their life.

Their blindness does not allow them to stand with those who see how Abba has come to give them His life for free; destroying death and all that seeks to harm them.

Abba knows how to clothe His family with His life and immortality, but those who refuse to be persuaded of the life Abba has given them free from their works will perish.

Psalm 2

Why are the people and nations so disturbed, crying out in angst? Why do they meditate on the life they can give themselves?

The kings and princes of the earth are fixed firmly against Abba and Me, His anointed.

They have never known or seen Abba at any time, so they portray Him as an evil taskmaster who wants to put them in bondage. And say, “we won’t let Him reign over us!”

Abba laughs and actually rejoices knowing His plan will make that thought look silly.

Then when Abba speaks in His passion for the life He will give them for free; in His passion for all to share in His life, He gives over those who want to be self-sufficient to be increasingly disturbed to the point they see that their way only produces death and that it pleases Abba to give them His life for free.

Abba says of Me, I have set My king at My right hand, the holy place where I dwell.

I will declare what Abba spoke unto to Me from the beginning, He said, you are My beloved Son; and in the fullness of time, Abba has revealed Me as His son in raising Me from the dead with His life and immortality.

Abba, I inquire of You and You remind Me how We said Let Us make man Ourselves as an inheritance and the uttermost part of the earth as Our entire family's possession.

You shall make foolish the corrupt wisdom of the world, and with Me; Your right arm; You will shatter it like a sledgehammer as a way unto life;

And You shall declare to kings and to all people Abba’s wisdom. Oh, you kings and judges of the earth behold the teaching and instruction of Abba in Me;

Then You will trust Abba is the Lord and that You have no ability to give yourself life but stand still in awe and rejoice that He has come to freely clothe you with His life; the same incorruptible life you see in Me.

Embrace, Me, the Son; the way unto the life Abba is passionate to give you, lest He be displeased that you perish.

Abba has spoken well of and adored you in the Son, trust in Him.

Psalm 3

Abba! The multitudes they do persecute Me and many have risen up against Me; and say I am forsaken by God.

They have accused You Abba of not caring for My life; that You will leave Me for dead.

But You O Abba are always speaking well of Me and surrounding Me with Your protection, and You are the One who will defend My honor and exalt Me.

When I cry out “Abba!”, You always hear Me in My affliction from Your holy mountain.

I can lay down to sleep and arise knowing that You Abba are My rest and, in Your strength, You do uphold Me.

Therefore, I will not fear the multitudes that have set themselves against Me and are all around Me.

Because You O Abba will raise Me up and save Me from death and corruption; for You Abba have delivered a blow that has disarmed the enemy and has deprived death of its sting.

Salvation is only found in You Abba. And it is Your good pleasure to clothe Your people with the same life and immortality they see in Me.

Psalm 4

When I cry out to You Abba, You hear and remind Me of Your sure testimony about Me; that You will save My life from destruction: You deliver Me from all distress; ever influencing My heart that You will only be good to Me, always listening attentively to My cry.

O you afflicted of men, when will you see Abba's good opinion of you and reject the lie of His disapproval?

How long will you labor without benefit to give yourself life, running after lies that only bring death?

But know that Abba has testified in Me, His Holy One; that you are His own; so that you can be certain that Abba will hear you when you call out to Him;

And with great confidence; stand still in awe that it is Abba who will clothe you with His life: So that when you lie down you will say within your own heart, I can rest and do no work.

It is a sweet offering to Abba for your heart to rest confidently in the truth that He will save your life from destruction, and for you to put your trust in Him.

Still, there are those who say; who will show us this goodness and give us this confidence?

Abba, Let Us exalt and reveal the light of Your face, in Me that they may behold their face in Mine; the same glory upon themselves;

Abba, You have put an incorruptible joy in My heart that cannot be touched or compared to corruptible feasts of food and wine.

I can lay down My life and rest in You; being fully persuaded of Your goodness toward Me Abba, to save My life from destruction.

Psalm 5

Abba leans into Me and listens to My every utterance; hearing even the whisper and groan of My heart.

When You hear My voice Abba, listen attentively to My cry, for You are My King and it is only You that I call to for help, My God and My Abba.

At the dawn of everyday Abba, You hear the sound of My voice. And looking to You sets My heart at rest as the only source of My life.

For You Abba have no pleasure in seeing man laboring and toiling for life but desire for all to enter Your rest; trusting that You will freely give them the life they see in Me at Your right hand; causing them to cease from all labor.

You despise the corrupt wisdom that destroys and prevents the hearts of those laboring for life to stand before You blameless.

You shall utterly destroy the logic that speaks lies and brings death. Abba, You abhor all that kills and deceives a man's heart.

But You Abba persuade and influence My heart to come into Your rest, where I find trust and confidence that You will preserve My life and I will stand still in awe of the vastness of Your loving kindness.

You guide Me Abba in Your way unto life; there is a way in the world that is against Me and seeks to destroy Me; You show Me Your sure testimony clearly before My face.

For no confidence can be found anywhere else but in You Abba, certainly not in the perverted wisdom of those who are trusting in their own strength for life; where there is only agonizing labors and deceit that end in death.

Abba, You will certainly bring an end to the suffering of all those in sin and death. Let those who are laboring to give themselves life see that it is their rejection of Your life as a gift that leads to pain and destruction, and that it is only rejecting Your life Abba that will cause them to perish.

But everyone who puts their trust in You Abba, and the life You have freely given them will find great joy welling up on the inside so much so that they will shout for joy, when they see that You will ever defend them from what could bring them destruction; Your beloved family finds love and great joy in You Abba.

For You Abba will always speak well of Me and destroy all that tries to injure Me; With everlasting kindness will You surround Me with Your protection and clothe Me with Your incorruptible life.

Psalm 6

Abba You will not reprove Me in anger neither correct Me in displeasure.

But in Your passion for life Abba, You gently influence My heart of Your loving kindness in the midst of My weakness Abba, heal Me from death's sting; for I am greatly disturbed to the very core of My being.

My soul is extremely dismayed; So, I ask You Abba, How long?

I await Your deliverance Abba. Save Me in Your everlasting kindness toward Me;

For though death is all around Me; I know that Your loving kindness is not declared in death. Nor Your faithfulness in destruction.

Abba, I am weary of crying and My tears soak My bed each night.

My eyes are filled with sadness from grief and in My distress, I cry "Abba!"

And all that seeks to destroy Me departs; Abba; Your joy floods Me and sorrow leaves. For You Abba have heard My cry and seen My tears.

You Abba have heard Me in My distress and have influenced My heart of Your passionate desire and delight to always save Me from what seeks to destroy Me.

Abba You have put all that seeks to destroy My life and all Your beloveds life to open shame and bring sudden destruction upon the enemy; death, in raising Me from the grave immortal.

Psalm 7

O Abba in You alone do I take refuge and put My trust to save Me from all the death and corruption in the world, and deliver Me;

There is no one to deliver Me but You, Abba, rescue Me, lest the enemy tear Me to pieces.

O Abba, the enemy has charged Me unjustly; saying I am not the Son and has delivered Me up without cause;

Though the enemy afflict My soul, and even if he take My life upon the earth and lay it in the dust of the ground; I will not lift one finger to defend Myself, For it is You O Abba who ever defends Me;

Abba, You will raise Me up immortal, delivering Your judgment; and defending Me against all the evil plots of the enemy; You have judged Me innocent and testified to all Your beloved that they are free from death's accusation; this is the justice You have commanded;

For that reason, Abba, all the people want to gather around You; seeing You have judged them as innocent in Me, from Your throne.

O Abba You shall judge the people innocent, by raising them up; just as You judged Me as innocent; Seeing You are My defender from all that seeks to harm Me.

O Abba, Let Us end the hardships and annoyances of those laboring and toiling for life: And establish Your justice in their hearts and minds in giving them Your life and immortality as a gift; And defending them from all that seeks to destroy them;

You Abba are My defender and save Your beloved by persuading their hearts of the sure hope they see in Me; to rest in You to freely clothe them with Your life and immortality.

Abba You have judged all innocent and are just in defending Your beloved from that which seeks to destroy them, Your passion every day is to utterly destroy the way that brings death;

Abba will answer. He has death in His cross hairs, ready to deliver a death blow.

Abba has firmly established Me, the vessel He has ordained to destroy the enemy; death.

Know this for certain; that the enemy who brought labor and toil upon His beloved to destroy them and brought lies and false beliefs to their hearts; has brought destruction upon himself and will fall into a pit;

The harm that the enemy has caused will end in its own head being crushed just as Abba promised; abolishing death along with the corrupt wisdom that it brought;

For Abba will utterly destroy death and all that has sought to harm Me, O give thanks and glory to You Abba; Your everlasting kindness makes My heart sing praises to Your name, My Abba.

Psalm 8

Abba Your name and Your majesty fill the earth. You have revealed the excellency of Your name in Me; wrapped in Your light and Your glory from heaven.

From the mouths of the young and innocent calling upon Your name in perfect praise have You established Your grace and strength making foolish the corrupt wisdom that brings death, silencing it.

When I behold You Abba and all the beautiful works of Your hand; in establishing the heavens and the earth;

In awe, I ask, who is man that You; Abba; have never forgotten Your promise of eternal life to them, or Me, the Son of man that You have made Your home in Me promising Me Your life and immortality; appointing Me the heir of all things?

You made Me a little lower than God for a short season and with everlasting kindness have surrounded Me with Your beauty and good opinion.

Abba, You have given Me power over all flesh and dominion to subdue the earth and all the works of Your hands; to put all things under My feet;

All sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,

The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatever passes through the paths of the seas;

O Lord, My Abba; You declare the glory and majesty of Your name in Me at Your right hand; exalting Your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

I will speak well of You Abba; revealing Your heart and providing testimony of Your marvelous works;

I rejoice in You Abba; lifting up and declaring Your name in songs of praise;

You will cause My enemy; death; the very thing that seeks to destroy man to perish from before Me, Your face;

For You have judged man innocence and Your testimony declares that You are just in defending them from all that seeks to destroy them.

You, Abba; abhor the labor and toil of the people for life. You will destroy the way that brings them death and give them Your life as a gift; You will cast away their death forever.

You, Abba will utterly destroy Your enemy death and bring all that seeks to injure man to an end; it will perish, and there will not even be a remembrance of it;

But You O Abba and Your life will endure forever: The very same life You have prepared for Me, reveals Your justice to clothe all Your beloved with Your life and immortality;

And You, O Abba have proclaimed Your judgment to the world in Me by defending all people from that which seeks to destroy them, declaring the innocence of all people;

Abba You are the deliverer of all that are oppressed, You are their rescuer in times of trouble;

I will make known Your name as Abba and reveal Your heart, that You will always only ever be good to them and never leave or forsake them; persuading them to trust in You Abba;

In song, I will speak of Your everlasting kindness Abba, and how that the everlasting kindness that dwells in You has come in Me to declare You as Abba to all people;

You, Abba remember the innocent; and never forget the cry of those trusting You to clothe them with life;

You influence My heart O Abba that You will clothe Me with Your life; when You see Me in distress, circled around by death, I trust that You will rescue My life, saving Me from death and corruption;

That I may provide true testimony of Your loving kindness to clothe all people with Your life; that they may behold and rejoice in the truth that You will also save them from death and clothe them with Your life;

The ones trying to give themselves life fall into pit by the very way they thought was life, but it is really leading them to destruction;

Abba's heart is known in Me; His testimony; where He has judged that He will provide you His life free from your works;

Those who are blinded to Abba's life continue in bondage, trying to give themselves life by their own hands which will lead to destruction;

For apart from Abba's life, they will perish, returning to the ground;

Abba will not forsake or forget the barren: those who see that they do not possess the ability to give themselves His life by their own works shall be satisfied seeing Your good pleasure to give it to them as a gift;

For Abba has answered in Me; by freely giving them His life and judging the wisdom of men trying to give themselves life by their own hand as death; Triumphant over death and providing His life as a gift;

O that all may see Abba's testimony to the life He has promised from the beginning in Me; and finding trust in Him and His promise, they will cease from trusting in themselves.

Psalm 10

O Abba, I inquired, why at certain times does it seem like You hid Yourself?

As if You stood off and watched as Your children ran off and joined themselves to Your enemy's family; a union You could not endorse;

The ones trusting in themselves for life will always lay burdens upon men too hard to be carried; let their own wisdom overtake them so that it would be exposed and brought to nothing;

They boast in themselves and their logic to give themselves life. Abba, You abhor this perverted wisdom and their union to it because You know that it brings them death;

Those trusting in themselves for life will never look to God for anything. For they do not see You as Abba; so their thoughts are as orphans who need to supply life for themselves;

His ways are defiled and always grievous and he does not see that You Abba have already judged that way will destroy him. But he pants in arrogance at anyone contrary to him;

He has said pridefully in his heart that he will not change his mind and that he will never find himself in adversity or death;

All the while his mouth is speaking of the lies and deceit in his heart that are the very thing bringing him the death he is experiencing;

His tongue is full of the serpent's wisdom and this causes him to be grieved with a labor for life with no benefit;

He waits to secretly ambush and murder the innocent; he privately desires to rule over those he sees as weak;

He tries to rule over them by drawing them into his logic and putting them under his heavy yoke;

He crouches like a lion waiting for its prey, deceitfully docile but ever ready to sink his teeth into them;

He has said in his heart, God has forsaken me; believing that You Abba have hid Your face from him, so he will not ever see it; when in reality what You are forsaking is the way that will destroy him, and his union to the thing that is bringing him death;

Your answer Abba is to exalt Me, Your right hand, to reveal You as Abba so they can see that You will protect and defend all that they need for life and they do not need to provide life for themselves;

Why then do they not take into account Your long suffering and everlasting kindness toward them? But instead think all You really want to do is repay them for their actions;

You have seen the folly they are believing unto and their grievousness toward others and You respond with Me, Your right hand; For You Abba are the helper of those who feel orphaned;

Let Us, Abba break the strong arm of the enemy, death; Let Us plague death until it is no more. Your life and immortality in Me will put an end to it once and for all;

Abba You will reign supreme forever, and that which brought death and corruption to man and creation will perish;

Abba, You have heard the cry of those who see they cannot give themselves life: Let Us give testimony that will provide their hearts with a confident expectation of Your life as a gift whereby they will cry Abba Father;

And will judge and declare that no man is orphaned in the earth; separated from Your life but that You Abba have destroyed all that oppresses them.

Psalm 11

Safety is only found in You Abba, in Your hands do I trust My life; why would I run off and look for shelter anywhere else based on the world's council?

The enemy is secretly waiting to attack the innocent; with his same old trick of getting them to consider saving themselves, saying;

When you see the death and injustice in the world; what are you, who are looking for God to save you going to do?

Abba dwells in Me His holy temple, where He saves and defend His children. Abba's throne reigns supreme in heaven and He sees all that could cause His children harm;

Abba knows His children in innocence, and He saves them from death and all that seeks to destroy them; He abhors the way that would harm or cause injury to any of His beloved.

Abba will visit and completely plague and destroy the enemy, death; and when He shall manifest in all His glory it will reveal the hearts of those clothed in the glory of Abba, lest they be consumed, not by Him, but by whatever is not of Him, and all else baptized with life and immortality.

For Abba, our defender and our life, is the Lord who loves to destroy and bring an end to all that could hurt His beloved; His face is always set to defend and uphold the innocent.

Psalm 12

Abba, help Me to declare Your heart and testify among the children of men, for they have not been hearing Your heart for them.

They speak falsely to their neighbor in their vain attempt to give themselves life, not because they care about their neighbor, but they want to bring them under the same burdens;

Your Truth Abba reveals the lie that tells a man he can have life apart from You; and shuts the mouth of the one who boasts in his own ability to obtain life;

They trust in their own words and their own way to prevail. They say in their self-sufficiency that they don't need anyone else;

But for all that are oppressed and see their inability to give themselves life; and for the cry of those longing for life, Abba has heard and answered with His incorruptible life by raising Me up from the dead immortal; setting them at liberty from the reign of death; the thing that put them in bondage to a life of labor and toil, and has given them same incorruptible life they see in Me free from their works;

The Word that Abba has revealed in Me is full of grace and truth, light and life: Free of any mixture, perfectly purified like dross from silver; by fire in the earth;

O Abba You keep Your Word, and Your hope keeps Your beloved pure and preserved from the corruption that is in the world; forever.

The hardships of this world will most certainly surround on every side, those who exalt and walk by its corrupt wisdom; who do not see Your heart to serve them with the same life revealed in Me; Abba.

Psalm 13

Abba, men do cry out in their oppression asking; how long will You forget me? Why does it feel like You hid Your face from me?

How long will I feel alone in darkness; every day feeling sorrowful and broken hearted? How long will it feel like death is winning?

Let Us answer them O Abba; testifying in Me the light and life which You have given them for their darkness and death, lest they perish.

Let Us bring an end to death;

Lest the enemy deceive them saying; I have rule over them, to keep them in bondage to the fear of death, rejoicing that in their trouble, they might continue laboring to give themselves life.

But Abba, I trust in You to deliver Me; for You are ever influencing My heart of Your loving kindness toward Me; This causes My heart to rejoice and rest in You to save Me from all death and corruption.

Your everlasting kindness and generosity O Abba make My heart sing, for You have given Me Your life and immortality as My inheritance.

Psalm 14

The man who labors and toils for life does not see that You Abba have come to serve him with Your life but he foolishly says in his heart “there is no one to serve Me with life;” I must serve myself;

This mindset leaves his life in torment and ruin, and nothing good can come of it but only death;

Abba beholds His children who are oppressed and believing they must give themselves life, longing for them to see His heart to give them His life and immortality as a gift;

They have all believed the lie that they are orphans in the earth who must give themselves life. There is not one trusting that You Abba will protect and defend them from death and all that seeks to destroy them;

Have all those laboring for life without benefit not seen that it is the way of death? They lay burdens too hard to bear on those who see they have no ability to give themselves life; not acknowledging that there is only life in You Abba;

There is no rest in this corrupt way of thinking but only torment; Let Us Abba come and dwell with man and win their friendship; defending them from death and all that seeks to destroy them;

Let Us put to shame and spoil death and the corrupt wisdom that tells them they lack life and must provide it for themselves; but rather You Abba will testify in Me the life and immortality You have given them in My resurrection;

O Abba, in Me, Your holy place, has salvation from death come for all people; and when You Abba rescue Your people from bondage, everyone will rejoice and be glad.

Psalm 15

Abba, who will abide in You and You in Him? Who will make a way for all to enter into Your holiest place and eat of the tree of life?

It is Me, in whom all Your fullness dwells bodily, in whom You will bring an end to death all that seeks to destroy Your beloved, declaring You as Abba; And testifying to the truth that was from the beginning;

I speak no deceit but only the truth from the heart of Abba; never placing hardships on men too hard to bear but rather declaring Abba's good opinion of them and His desires to give them His life;

I abhor all that seeks to ruin and put men in bondage; but testify to them how Abba can be trusted to destroy their death and keep His promise that was from the beginning to give them His life;

In Me He has abundantly acquit the accused and will not condemn the innocent but serves them with His life. He that trusts in Him shall never be ashamed but shall abide with Him forever.

Psalm 16

O Abba it is You who keeps watch over My life to preserve it; Into Your hands do I trust My life;

You have spoken to My heart O Abba, that the everlasting kindness that You shall show forth in Me, will be a sign of the same glory to be revealed in all people in the earth who call upon Your name Abba; Your beloved in whom is all Your delight;

Those who are quick to trust in the works of their own hand will only find their sorrow and distress increases; Your life, Abba, contains no mixture; it contains no partaking of the way that brings death, nor will that way be named among those who trust in Abba for life;

For there is only life in You Abba; You are My inheritance and My exceeding great reward; and the inheritance of all those trusting in You for life;

In Your life Abba, I find sweet rest; I am forever satisfied with Your life and Your loving kindness is My delight;

I will declare and speak well of Your name Abba; for My sure testimony is able to persuade the hearts of Your beloved of Your life and salvation even in their darkest of hours;

Just as You have set Your life Abba, before Me, My joy; so also set My life before Your beloved by seating Me at Your right hand, where they will find Your life and fullness of joy forevermore;

My heart is filled with gladness and confidence in Your good opinion of Me Abba, and all Your beloved; My flesh goes to rest with the confident expectation of Your life and immortality;

For You Abba, have testified and promised to Me that You will not leave Me in the grave; Nor allow Me, Your Holy One, to see corruption.

In Me Abba, You have testified to all people, the way unto life; giving them a confident expectation that You will not allow their lives to see death or destruction but have conquered death and all that seeks to destroy them, wherein their flesh can also rest in the hope of the same incorruptible life they see in Me.

Abba You have shown Me the path to Your life; that all may know it in Me; and stand before You in immortal flesh and bone, in innocence and love where there is fullness of joy and at Your right hand, being served by Your loving kindness forevermore

Hear Me Abba; Your righteous One, and all the innocent and oppressed as their cry comes to Your ears;

Let Us bring forth justice; the thing that is right and just in Your eyes, which is the destruction of death all that seeks to destroy the innocent; clothing them in Your life and immortality;

You have strengthened My heart, You have been with Me in My darkest hour, and I have found that My desire is to do Your will O Abba; I will not use My lips to preserve My life, but into Your hands will I trust My life;

Your teaching and instruction Abba have kept Me from the corrupt wisdom in the world; and from the works of man's hands, the way that leads to destruction;

You uphold Me Abba, ever influencing My heart in the way of life;

You always hear Me when I cry out to You. O Abba, You are always leaning into hear Me and the cry of the innocent;

Show forth Your everlasting kindness, O Abba, bringing salvation by Me; Your right hand; for all those who put their trust in You; conquering their death and all that seeks to destroy them;

Keep Me forever as the apple of Your eye. Hide Me under Your mighty hand of protection;

From all that seeks to destroy and oppress Me; from the deadly enemies who circle around Me;

They find their greatness in their substance; boasting loudly of their own ability and enticing Me to do the same;

They have ignorantly set themselves against Your way unto life;

Seeking to destroy the innocent; by secretly luring them into their corrupted way of thinking; trusting in the strength of their own hand for life;

Let Us Abba; spoil and bring to shame this corrupt wisdom; triumphing over it and exposing it for the death that is contained in it; bringing an end to it;

Deliver Me, Your beloved, from the enemy, death, that has circled around Me; swallowing it up with Your incorruptible life; speaking an eternal word to all men that this is also their testimony and inheritance;

In order that all men might find their sure hope in You Abba; and not what they can bring forth for themselves; comforting all those who are oppressed by death and crying out to You daily;

Abba, just as I have beheld in Your face, and Your everlasting kindness in putting an end to the death that came against Me and all Your beloved; They also can behold themselves in My face with the hope of the same life and immortality they see in Me.

As for Me Abba, I shall be fully satisfied and complete when I awake to the power of Your resurrection and sit at Your right hand, with an immortal human body with Your likeness;

Psalm 18

Your loving kindness captivates My heart and wins My love and friendship Abba, My strength and My deliverer;

You Abba are a mighty fortress, a firm foundation, My strength and My shield and My defender; in You do I place My trust to destroy all that seeks to harm Me;

I will be Your ram's horn, sounding deliverance from death and all My enemies; You have set Me high out of danger;

I call on Your name Abba in distress and You save Me; It is Your good pleasure to deliver Me from My enemies;

I am sorrowful unto death; as if a heavy weight is pressing in on Me; the pains and anticipation of death and the grave have rushed up upon Me;

In My distress, I called upon You Abba and cried to You My God: You always hear My voice and My cry comes to Your ears from Me; Your holy temple;

Then You answered Abba and Your voice shook the earth and the foundations of the enemy were moved because of Your great passion to come and put an end to death and all that destroyed Your beloved;

There, I saw the breath that came from Your nostrils and fire from Your mouth to take pestilence on My enemy and devour it from the earth;

In a whirlwind You hovered over our darkness; And the angels announced Your arrival;

You veiled Yourself in mortality; clothing Yourself in human flesh; entering men's darkness;

The brightness of Your glory swallowed up the darkness; The breath of Your judgment consumes all that the enemy uses to harm Your beloved;

You spoke from heaven and sent Me, Your Word, the light and the life, that shook the heavens with Your judgment against the corrupted wisdom and death in the earth; The breath of Your Spirit swallowed it up;

Your passion has directly and precisely delivered a death blow to the enemy, death: In Me, the enemy and its corrupt wisdom are put to shame and brought to nothing;

The wisdom of the world has been revealed for the death and destruction that it brought on Your beloved; and the breath of Your incorruptible life swallows it up;

You came from above and entered into My darkness, rescuing Me from destruction; delivering Me from death, and from all that sought to destroy Me;

The enemy thought it could stop Me when all sin and all death pressed in against Me; but the promise of Abba's life upheld Me;

Abba delivered Me from death and brought Me into His holiest place, seating Me at His right hand, because I am His beloved Son in whom He delights;

Abba defends and destroys all that seeks to bring harm to Me, and His beloved; He is our great reward; in Me; He revealed the innocence of all people and rewarded them with His life;

I am fully persuaded that Abba will save Me from death and give Me His life; I have taken no thought of providing life for myself or trusting in the arm of man;

For Abba's teaching and instruction in the way unto life are always before Me; His truths have captivated My heart.

Being fully persuaded of Your loving kindness to give Me Your life Abba, it keeps Me from the iniquity of the world; that trusts in themselves for life.

You Abba, set straight that which was crooked by coming and destroying our enemy; death; declaring our innocence in Your sight.

You have testified to the hearts of all people, In Me, of Your loving kindness and favor toward them; to give them Your life.

Those who see they cannot give themselves life will delight when they see Your heart to give them Yours, Abba; Those who don't will continue to labor in vain and experience hardships.

But You O Abba will save the afflicted when they cry out to You; and will bring an end to the death that oppresses even the ones trusting in themselves for life;

For You Abba, have given Me for a light in the world; A light unto life in the midst of darkness;

And how the word of My testimony has spoken of them; that they can pass through the enemies' camp, the shadow of death victoriously;

As for Abba, His way is perfect not requiring any additions: And Me, the word of Abba, has been tried by the fire of his Spirit: His testimony is a certainty and an arm of protection for all who place their trust in Him;

Is there any other God than Abba; or any other foundation besides Him?

Abba is My strength and only in Him am I complete; He sets Me in Him, on solid ground. In Him I find wisdom and safety against the tactics of My enemies;

Abba has given Me as the sure evidence of His salvation; found at His right hand; He upholds all by His Word that was from the beginning.

You Abba, make the barren fruitful;

You have directed My steps and influenced My heart in Your path. Pursing My enemies and overtaking them; neither did You turn to the left or the right until all was consumed;

I have crushed the enemy under My feet, never to rise again; By You Abba, who strengthens Me; You have subdued all that rose against Me. Abba You have given Me to conquer the enemy death, that destroyed Your beloved; That We might bring an end to it;

You bring destruction to death and the grave and will not repent; sending away all the corrupt wisdom that brought it upon the earth;

You delivered Me from death, testifying to Your everlasting kindness toward all people; and made Me the head of those who were once without hope;

When they behold Your goodness toward them Abba, in Me, they will trust in You and Your ability to save them from death;

And in beholding Your life, the wisdom of those trusting in themselves will fade away;

Abba is the God of the living, our Lord; He has exalted Me, and blessed Me, the author and foundation of eternal salvation for all people;

It is Abba who subdued the enemy under My feet; and set Me at his right hand, with a name above all heaven and in earth;

I give thanks to You Abba; and sing praises to Your name declaring Your life and immortality for people of every tongue and every nation;

Abba brought great deliverance to His king; and has testified of His everlasting kindness toward all people in Me, His anointed; to David and his seed and all who are persuaded and believe on His name; forevermore.

Psalm 19

Heaven speaks of Your majesty Abba; and all creation declares Your good opinion of the ones You made to inhabit it.

Every single day, the wisdom and loving kindness of You Abba can be seen in creation.

It speaks a word that is universally understood; and there is not anywhere it cannot be heard.

So also, Your Word goes forth throughout the entire earth; and just as the sun rises from darkness, Abba has set Me, His dwelling, the light to the world;

Shining as a bridegroom coming forth, adorn for his bride, He rejoices and eagerly runs after her, His beloved.

As the sun shines in the earth so His light and His life also go forth to the ends of the world; and nothing can be hid from them or their influence.

For the teaching and instruction of Abba unto to life is perfectly revealed in Me; who converts the soul: and provides sure testimony of the life Abba has prepared for us all;

Causing those who see they have no ability to give themselves life to trust in Him and His wisdom for life.

His testimony reveals the way unto life and is what pleases Abba; and makes the heart rejoice in hope; He is pure, the Word of life that was from the beginning, persuading the heart of man in the way unto life.

The wisdom and instruction of Abba unto life is pure: It declares His justice to destroy death and all that seeks to harm His beloved and give them His life and immortality.

Your teaching and instruction unto life is more desirable than the most refined gold: Sweeter than honey from a honeycomb.

Moreover, in Me, Abba, You have declared Your righteous judgment: and put on display Your incorruptible life; Your great reward.

Who can discern that which brings death and that which brings life apart from Me, Abba's teaching and instruction of life?

Let Us persuade Your beloved of Your life Abba;

So that they cease from trusting in themselves; that the fear of death would no longer rein over them: Only then will they see in their hearts that they are as they ought to be, and innocent before You in love.

Let them behold My testimony as the sure word You have spoken about them in the resurrection; persuading their hearts of Your life; which is the thing Your heart desires Abba; and the thing their hearts have always desired; O Abba, My strength and My redeemer.

Psalm 20

Abba hears your cry in the day of your affliction; for His name is wonderful, counselor, everlasting Father; He will save and defend His children.

He will send help from out of His dwelling place; Me; His Holy One:

Trust in Him who is the perfect offering; and the exact expression of His heart toward you; who puts an end to death and declares your innocence; His sacrifice is a sweet-smelling savor to Abba.

He will fill your hearts with gladness; when you behold in Him the sure hope of everything you have ever longed for;

Rejoice in Him, who saves you from death and all that seeks to destroy you and brings Abba's life and immortality to light;

And in His name, our Lord, Abba; will we find the One who fills the desire of our hearts with His promise of life, which He made before the world began.

Now we can behold the testimony of how Abba saved, Me, His Anointed from death; how that He did not allow Me to see corruption; but raised Me up to His right hand.

Some trust in their own labor and the works of their hand for life; but there is only life in You Abba; and it is found in My sure testimony at Your right hand.

All ways contrary to Your wisdom will be brought to naught; but those who trust in You, You will seat with Me at Your right hand.

You save, Abba; You hear the cry of all who call on Your name.

Psalm 21

Abba in Me; Your strength; comes great joy to all the kingdoms of the earth; they all rejoice in Me; Your salvation.

In Me; You have given them the desire of their hearts; You heard their cry and healed their broken hearts.

For in Me, Abba; You have spoken a word in regard to Your good view and opinion of them; You blessed Your beloved in Me with the highest manor of speech; You set a crown of refined gold upon My head; Let Us give them life and immortality as a free gift; and provide sure testimony of it, in Me, at your right hand; forevermore.

Abba's good view and opinion of man is testified of in Me, in Him saving Me from death and raising Me up to everlasting life in an immortal human body, at His right hand.

Abba, the same honor and glory You have given Me; is their inheritance;

For You blessed My name above every name; filling Me with joy; I will that they also might behold Me and see in themselves in My face, the same glory by Your Spirit.

For in Me, and My sure testimony, all the people of the earth can behold how through Your divine influence upon My heart of Your loving kindness and goodness toward Me, I placed My trust solely in You to preserve My life, saving Me from death and raising Me to Your life in an immortal human body; forever.

In Me; Your right hand, have You destroyed the enemy, death; and all that sought to hurt Your beloved.

The breath of Your Spirit will put an end to all that is contrary to Your wisdom and against Your beloved; Your incorruptible life will utterly swallow up all that is corruptible.

In Me; You will take an axe to the root of the tree bearing the fruit of death; and destroy that seed from ever again hurting the children of men.

The enemy has intended to bring hardships against Your beloved, too hard to bear; which they could never perform.

Therefore, in Me; Abba, You answer by making foolish that corrupted wisdom; the breath of Your Spirit of life will consume it; destroying its power over Your beloved; forever.

Abba, You have exalted Me; Your strength, to Your right hand: so all who behold will sing praises unto You; seeing the hope; and sure confidence in Your ability to bring forth the same life and immortality to their mortal bodies.

Psalm 22

“Abba!” You have heard the cry of men's hearts; saying;

"My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Why do You seem so far from helping me, and from the groaning in my heart?"

My God, I cry in the daytime, but You don't seem to hear me; and in the night I am not silent."

But You O Abba have answered them, in Me, the Holy One of Israel; whom You dwell. In Me, You have healed their broken hearts and put a new song within them;

Our fathers trusted in You Abba and You always delivered them from bondage.

They cried unto You Abba and You heard their cry and You have shown Yourself trustworthy to always deliver them and never disappoint.

Man has said in his heart “I am but a worm and not a man; and disapproved by God; he will leave me for dead.”

But I, the son of man am despised and rejected of men.

They all laugh at Me; wagging their heads at Me saying;

He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now; seeing He said He was His son in whom He delighted.

You brought Me forth from the seed of woman; with the full weight of the mortality and hope of all man.

From the womb I have been Your son; Your beloved from My mother's belly.

Abba be not far from Me; when trouble is near; there is only help found in You.

All the weight of the enemy has pressed in upon Me like a wild beast; they do surround Me in their full strength.

They open their mouths to tear Me apart like a wild beast.

My blood pours through My skin like water; I am stretched, and My bones are pulled out of joint; My heart burns like furnace inside Me.

My strength is completely gone and My mouth is dry and My jaw locked. The distress and the shadow of death are upon Me.

All Your naysayers have surrounded Me like a pack of dogs; they have pierced My hands and My feet.

My bones separate from My body and stare back at Me. They part My garments among themselves, Abba be not far from Me, O Abba, My strength; Deliver Me from the power of the enemy; death and the grave.

For I know You have heard Me and will deliver Me, into Your hands do I trust My life.

Let My testimony be the sure evidence of Your life and loving kindness for all My brethren to behold; that will put a new hope within their hearts; that You will never leave nor forsake them.

That all will trust in You, Abba; through Me, the captain of their salvation.

For You, Abba have not despised or abhorred, Me; the afflicted; and the forsaken of men; You have not hid Your face from Me but when I cried out “Abba” to You, You heard and delivered Me.

Let them behold My persuasion and My hope in You Abba as a testimony of their life and their hope; a gift to all who trust in that same hope.

All those who do not boast in their own ability to have life, will behold Me as their food for life and will eat and be satisfied; forever.

This will be for a testimony for the world and a remembrance for all people and nations; That His wisdom and kingdom reign and has dominion over all people and nations of the earth.

All those that will be prosperous on the earth will eat of Me; the bread of life; the only place where life is found.

Abba will serve You with His life forever; and show you kindness for the ages to come.

Abba, Let us declare, how in Me, You destroyed death and all that sought to harm Your beloved and raised Me up to Your right hand; speaking an eternal word that can be born in their heart; a new creation and a new living hope.

Psalm 23

Abba is the Lord; My shepherd; in Him there is no lack.

I am the good shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep; Abba has appointed Me the shepherd of His pasture;

He has made them to sit in the same place where Abba has sat Me, in His dwelling place; where the food is pleasant and the meat is tender; I will lead them where they can find rest and drink from the pure water of His love and grace.

Abba protects and restores My life; saving Me from death and all that would destroy Me; providing in Me, a sure testimony for all people of His incorruptible life and His name.

Yes, even when all death and darkness in the world press in on Me; I find no thought of saving Myself; for Your Spirit always comforts Me with the truth of the incorruptible life You have promised.

You, Abba have prepared a table; a feast of incorruptible food, from where You serve Me all the fruit of Your life, right in the midst of My enemy; death.

You have anointed Me with the oil of gladness; where I find I have overflowing joy above all My fellows.

You have fully persuaded My heart Abba, that surely Your goodness and loving kindness will pursue Me all the days of My life: And I will dwell in You and You in Me; in glorified human flesh; forever.

Psalm 24

The earth is Abba's as well as everything that fills it; those who dwell in the earth Abba calls His own family.

And for them, He founded it upon the seas; and established it upon the waters.

Who is the One that can ascend into heaven? Who is it that will restore the way back to Your holiest place; joining heaven and earth?

It is in Me, Abba, who is blameless, and a pure heart; who has not trusted in the strength of My own hands; nor used My own ability to save Myself; or spoken lies in hypocrisy;

Who You have spoken well of Abba; Your beloved son; and shown forth Your testimony in Me; saving Me from death, raising Me up and seating Me at Your right hand; O Abba, God of My salvation;

A testimony for all people and all generations to seek and find Your face in beholding Me as themselves like in a mirror.

Lift up your heads; behold with your eyes, Abba's good view and opinion of you in Me; Let Us persuade your heart of His everlasting kindness toward you; and the King of glory will come and make His home in you.

Who is the King of glory? He is the Lord strong and mighty, testifying in Me of the life and immortality Abba has given to you as an inheritance; the One who destroys all sin and death; delivering you from all that seeks to harm you; raising you in His same image and likeness in the resurrection.

Lift up your heads; behold with your eyes, Abba's good view and opinion of you in Me; Let Us persuade your heart of His everlasting kindness toward you; and the King of glory will come and make His home in you.

Who is the King of glory? The One who sits at Abba's right hand in an immortal human body; and in you, the sure hope of the same glory. He is the King of glory.

Psalm 25

In My passion Abba I cry out to You.

O My Abba, In You do I trust My life: You will never leave Me disappointed or let the enemy triumph over Me.

Truly no one who places their trust in You will ever be ashamed: but rather You will destroy and bring the enemy to nothing.

Show Me Your ways, O Abba; teach Me the path that will destroy all that seeks to harm Me and Your beloved forever.

Lead Me by Your Spirit and teach Me: for in You do I trust that You will not allow My flesh to see corruption or leave Me in the grave.

Abba, You influenced My heart of Your love and favor from My mother's womb; and You call to My remembrance Your everlasting kindness from the beginning.

Let there be no remembrance of the sin and death in the world which I entered; but rather let them behold Me, the light and the life to the world, and see the full force of death absorbed into Myself;

Conquering it; being raised to incorruptible life; and seating Me at Your right hand; according to Your tender mercy and loving kindness; that Your beloved might see they are holy and without blame before You in love, O Abba.

You are only Good Abba; therefore You will teach and instruct those with no ability to give themselves life, the way unto life, In Me.

Those who do not seek to give themselves life will He show forth His judgment to give them His life as a gift in Me, apart from their ability; in Me, He will teach and instruct them the way unto His life.

All the ways of Abba are perfectly revealed in Me; full of grace and truth; to persuade all people to trust in My sure testimony.

For Your beloved's sake, O Abba, Let Us remove all iniquity from the earth; for it is grievous against them.

Happy is the man who trusts in You Abba; in My testimony, You will teach and instruct them in way unto life.

In Me will their hearts will find rest; being fully persuaded of You and Your ability to save them from death and give them Your incorruptible life; wherein, they will inherit the earth.

Your determined purpose Abba is fully revealed in Me; and My sure testimony will show all people Your good view and judgment of them by destroying death and all that seeks to harm them; and giving them Your incorruptible life.

My heart is forever settled in You, Abba; to save Me from all destruction.

You, Abba see Me in My pain and affliction and You ever influence My heart of Your loving kindness to save Me; for I am Your only begotten son.

The pains and troubles of death come against Me; Abba, save Me out of My distress.

You look upon Me in My affliction; to deliver Me; declare My innocence by saving Me from death and raising Me up to new life only by Your ability, O Abba.

Consider My enemy, death, when it sees Me; it hates Me with a cruel hatred;

For I trust in You Abba to preserve My life and deliver Me from death; conquering it: I will not be disappointed; for I trust My life to You.

I trust in You Abba; who cannot lie; and has promised life from before the world began.

O Abba, You redeem, Me and all Your beloved from death and all destruction; revealing Your life and immortality.

Psalm 26

Defend Me, O Abba; for I am innocent; full of grace and truth; I have trusted in Your strength and Your ability and not My own; In You, I shall not be moved.

Strengthen Me, O Abba, instruct Me by Your Spirit; that I may grow in Your wisdom and stature;

My heart is persuaded of Your loving kindness; daily it is before My eyes; as I walk in Your truth.

I have not partaken of the emptiness in the world with those who labor without benefit; neither do I give heed to the wisdom of the blind.

I have abhorred the corrupted wisdom of those laboring and toiling for life; and I am set against the hardships they lay upon men too hard to bear.

I am innocent; not boasting in the works of My own hands; rather I am fully persuaded to rely only in Your strength and ability, O Abba;

So that I might hear and declare with thanksgiving, Your goodness and loving kindness; and all Your wonderful works.

Abba, I love being Your dwelling place; for in Me, all can behold where Your good view and opinion of man dwells.

Gather Me not with the dead or allow Me to see corruption; with those who devise hardships and their ways bring corrupt rewards upon men.

I walk in innocence; trusting only in You, Abba; redeem My life from destruction;

Let Us show forth Your good view and opinion and loving kindness toward all people in Me.

Let Us provide My testimony as their sure foundation; that as the first born from among the dead, at Your right hand, will I speak an eternal word to all who place their trust in You, of the same glory and immortality to be revealed in them.

Psalm 27

Abba is My light and My life; saving Me from all that would harm Me;
Abba is My strength and My ability; whom shall I be afraid?

When the enemy pressed in on Me and death came upon Me to devour
My flesh; they stumbled seeing their lying voice has nothing in Me.

Even though I am besieged and surrounded by death; My heart will not fear; for My confidence is in one thing;

For one thing have I desired and am confident in; O Abba; that I will stand before you in glorified human flesh and You will dwell in Me and I in You; forever;

In the glory that I had with You before the world was;

I will behold Your beauty; and You will show Me kindness for the ages to come.

For in the midst of My trouble, I find rest; because Abba has fully persuaded Me that He will clothe Me with His life; He will bring Me into the holiest place and set Me at His right hand.

And now Abba, will You exalt Me as the head; that Your wisdom and power be exalted far above all others; far above the enemy that surrounds Me.

Therefore, I will offer in Me, His tabernacle, a sacrifice of joy; I will sing a song of praise; and put a new song of hope in the hearts of all Your beloved.

You hear Me, O Abba, when I cry out to You: in Your favor and loving kindness You answer Me.

When You said, seek My face; I saw in it everything the human heart has ever longed for; Your face Abba will I seek;

Hide not Your face from Me, let it never be far from Me; when I cry out to You in My passion; You are always there to deliver Me.

You will never leave or forsake Me; O Abba; You rescue Me from all death and corruption.

Even when earthly parents and all others forsake; Abba, You will always be there to lift up.

Teach and instruct Me Your way unto life, O Abba, and let Us make Your path unto life plain before their eyes; and Your desire to destroy the enemy; death; and all that seeks to harm Your beloved; You make straight.

Deliver Me from death Abba and from all the plans of the enemy; they speak lies against Me; to gnash on Me and devour Me; tempting Me to rely in My own ability;

But You Abba, have influenced My heart that I faint not; for You have fully persuaded Me of Your goodness and everlasting kindness toward Me; and toward all those who dwell in the earth.

You Abba, influence My heart to go to rest; giving Me a confident expectation that You will clothe Me with Your life by Your strength and ability;

That all people may behold My testimony as a word about themselves; and Your good view and opinion of them; giving birth to the same hope in them;

Influencing their hearts to trust in You Abba for the same life and immortality they behold in Me, at Your right hand.

Psalm 28

I cry unto You, O Abba, My defender and sure foundation, You hear Me, even if You appear silent to those I represent; who are without hope and have fallen into a pit for which they cannot get themselves out.

When I, Your hands; am lifted up; I cry out to You with a strong cry of supplication, You hear Me; Your Holy One.

You keep Me from the way that leads to destruction; and from the end of those in bondage to it; they speak subtlety to their neighbor with their mouth, but in their heart is that which does harm.

Give them over to corrupt wisdom in their heart; and to the hardship of their labors: to pursue the works of their own hands so that they may see the emptiness of its rewards.

For they do not regard Your testimony Abba; nor the works of Me, Your hands; Let Us destroy all that seeks to harm them; conquering it forever.

Thanks be to You, Abba; because You have spoken well of them in Me; answering when You heard My voice and My cry for help;

Abba is the strength and the protector of My life; My heart goes to rest in Him; into His hands do I trust My life; I rejoice with song unto Him; and We have put a new song of hope into the hearts of all His beloved.

My testimony declares that Abba is their strength and their life; and He is the strength that saved Me, His anointed; from death and corruption.

Let Us save Your people from death and all that seeks to destroy them; You have spoken well of them, in Me, Our families inheritance; I will be their food for life and You will lift them up forever.

Psalm 29

I credit You Abba all glory and strength; both to Me, Your Holy One and to all people in the earth; and I declare;

I Am Your voice Abba; revealing, Your goodness and goodwill toward all people in the earth that they may trust in You; and behold in Me, Your beauty and desire for them.

I Am Your voice Abba upon the face of the deep; I Am, the light and the life that breaks through all death and darkness to overtake it.

I Am Your voice; life-giving and powerful; I Am, Your voice full of beauty and splendor; grace and truth.

I Am Your voice; breaking the power of the enemy at its root; destroying the enemy by shattering into pieces;

I Am Your voice; that makes sorrow and sadness flee away; and brings everlasting joy and gladness to all whom You comfort and redeem.

I Am Your voice; releasing Your breath into the earth; to dispel death and darkness and bring forth Your light and life.

I Am Your voice; that shakes the earth to destroy all that has made you barren; removing all that is corruptible; that only the incorruptible remain.

I Am Your voice; which strips away all fear; revealing Your everlasting love and kindness; In Me, Your dwelling, does everyone speak of Your wisdom and see Your glory; the glory to be revealed in them.

Abba sets Me, His Word and His voice above all; with all rule, power and dominion in this world and the world to come; Abba sets Me at His right hand; King forevermore.

Abba gives strength to all His beloved; and in Me; He has spoken a word of adoration to all man; declaring an eternal word of their freedom from all death and darkness; setting them at perfect peace; complete in His incorruptible life.

Psalm 30

Your name is highly exalted in Me, O Abba; for You have raised Me up; and have not let My enemy, death rejoice in ruling over Me.

O Abba my God; I cried to You in My affliction and You heard Me and healed Me, raising Me in immortal flesh;

O Abba, You brought My life up from the grave just as You promised; not allowing Me to see corruption with the dead.

Sing unto Abba; all you people in the earth whose death He has conquered in Me; and giving thanks for the sure hope of the same life you see in Me, which He has set apart for you.

For His vengeance at the death that was destroying you, His beloved, lasted but for a moment; and though weeping may endure for a night, everlasting joy and comfort comes in the morning; in seeing how Abba has abolished all sin and death by raising Me up;

And in Me abides the substance of that sure hope; having entered into Abba's rest, seated at His right hand in immortal human flesh; forevermore.

Not in My own strength Abba, but by Your favor and everlasting kindness You exalted Me; for a small moment You hid Your face from the union that which made Your beloved barren; but when I was troubled;

And I cried out to You in My affliction, with a strong cry; saying;

What profit is there in My blood, should the enemy prevail, and I go down with the dead in corruption and return to dust?

For the truth of Your everlasting love and kindness, and desire to give Your beloved life, destroying the enemy, death; is not declared in that.

But You, O Abba, heard Me; and did not abhor Me in My affliction; but You rescued Me;

Persuading My heart that You will never leave or forsake Me;

Providing a sure testimony; of Your favor and everlasting kindness in Me; by raising Me up from death; and not allowing Me to see corruption; seating Me at Your right hand; so that all Your beloved may behold Me and find their hearts filled with trust and certainty of the same life and immortality to be revealed in them.

You have turned My sorrow into dancing: You have removed My distress and filled Me with gladness above all My fellows; clothing Me in Your immortal life;

So that all can behold Me in immortal human flesh and bone at Your right hand; and that this shall be an everlasting word to all people; where their hearts go to rest in the same glory to be revealed in them.

O Abba My God, all glory, honor and thanksgiving to You forever.

Psalm 31

In You, O Abba, do I trust My life; In You, will I never be ashamed: deliver Me; leading Me in Your just way; which is to save Me and all Your beloved from death; defending from all that seeks to harm My life.

You incline Your ear attentively toward Me; deliver Me quickly from My enemy: be My sure foundation, an immovable house in which You save and defend Me.

For You are My rock; a mighty fortress; I declare Your name in all the earth; lead Me in the way that causes My heart to go to rest in You, and Your life, Abba.

Save Me from out of the trap they have secretly set for Me; Save Me by strength of Your hand Abba, and not My own strength and ability.

Into Your hands I commit My life; You have redeemed Me, O Abba; My God who is always speaking a word of confidence persuading My heart in the truth that He is the One who protects and defends My life;

I have abhorred the lies that caused death to reign over man; trusting only in Your truth and promise of life that has been from the beginning; Abba;

I am filled with gladness and rejoice in Your grace and loving kindness toward Me and all Your beloved; You always see Me and are ever with Me; defending and protecting My life in the midst of trouble;

And You have not allowed the enemy to close Me in without escape; but in the midst of all death and darkness, You set My heart at rest; free from anxiety and distress;

Have favor upon Me in My distress: for My heart is consumed with sorrow; felt in the depths of My belly;

My breath is spent; feeling the full weight of grief and iniquity in My body; I have no more strength and My bones are wasting away.

I am despised by all who surround Me; even My neighbors say “He has been rejected of God;” and fear has gripped even those who know Me; and they have fled from Me;

They have forgotten and left Me for dead; My body is bloody and broken;

I have heard the slander and insults of many; they surround Me; devising ways to inflict terror and how they may take My life;

But I trust in You, O Abba; I have declared You are My God and the shepherd of My life.

My life is in Your hands: deliver Me from the hand of My enemy; death; and from all that seeks to harm Me;

Let Your countenance shine upon Me; Your Holy One; influencing My heart of Your salvation; for the sake of Your everlasting kindness.

Let Me not be ashamed; O Abba; for I called upon You and You heard Me; Let the enemy be put to shame; and the grave lose its sting;

Let the lies of the enemy be silenced; and also the voice that says "he saved others, let him save himself" tempting Me to use My own ability and showing disdain against My trust in You, Abba; to destroy death and bring an end to all that which harms Me and Your beloved;

How great is Your goodness and everlasting kindness toward those who take refuge in You, Abba; trusting You with their life; which You testified of in Me, before all the sons of men.

In You, Abba; they find incorruptible life that keeps their hearts safe from laboring to have life by their own ability; free from the doctrine which brings hardships upon men too hard to bear.

Blessed be Abba forevermore: for He has shown forth His everlasting kindness in Me; a shining city on a hill that cannot be hid;

When death rushed upon Me, it tried to tell Me, that I lacked life and that I was alone and hidden from Your sight; but You heard My voice when I cried out in My distress; and rescued Me.

All those who taste and see His incorruptible life in Me, will find the love of Abba born in their hearts;

For Abba knows how to defend and protect those whose hearts He has fully persuaded; that He is the one who will provide them life free from their works; and the proud, who boast in their own ability will experience the emptiness of their reward.

Be of good cheer My beloved; He has conquered the corrupt life that is in the world, in Me; and Abba strengthens Your hearts with the hope of the same glory You behold in Me; in you.

Psalm 32

Blessed, happy and highly esteemed are those whose transgression Abba carries away in Me; whose death is swallowed up by His life.

Blessed, happy and highly esteemed are all men, who in Me, Abba reconciles back to Himself; not counting their iniquity to them;

In Me; who trusts not in My own strength and ability but in Abba to deliver Me from death.

When man tries to keep themselves by their works; they find themselves in distress and sorrow; crying out in anguish every day;

Day and night it weighs a heavy burden too hard to bear; their blessedness turns to lack, leaving them barren.

Let Us show them the corrupted wisdom that is killing them; that they may see and acknowledge; by beholding the life You freely provide them in Me; and removing all sin and death from them;

So that every man who see's Your life in Me would call upon Your name; in a time when You may be found; and be saved; Surely Your incorruptible life in them will remain unharmed when calamity strikes, and death will lose all its sting;

You have hidden Your beloved in Me; preserving their life incorruptible; free from all that could cause harm; You rejoice over them with singing; and with songs of Your deliverance.

Abba, teaches and instructs Me in the way that brings life to all man and destroys death and that which seeks to harm them; He leads Me by influencing My heart;

Unlike the horse which has no understanding but must be led with a bit in his mouth and must go where they are led but I come to freely do Your will and reveal Your heart, O Abba.

Many sorrows come upon those who labor and toil for life; but he that trusts in You, Abba; will You surround with Your favor and loving kindness.

Everlasting joy and gladness will be upon all those who see how in Me, Abba has destroyed their death and given them His life; those whose hearts go to rest in Me, at Abba's right hand.

Psalm 33

Rejoice; all you who see that Abba has come and saved you from death and all that sought to harm you; Abba has spoken beautifully of you; in Me;

Praise Abba with your voice and all sorts of musical instruments;

He has put a new song in our hearts; that brings gladness and great shouts of joy; playing our instruments loudly;

For the word that Abba has spoken about you in Me; provides a sure hope that He will destroy that which kills you and defend you from all that could cause you harm; all He testifies of in Me, declares this is the truth;

He loves setting His beloved at liberty from all that could destroy them; and He has judged them innocent; creation is filled with the fingerprints of Abba's loving kindness toward all people;

By Me; the Word of Abba, were the heavens made; and all those who dwell therein by the breath of His mouth;

He gathered the waters; declaring they could only go so far; and it was so;

Let all people and nations behold Your beauty Abba; let all stand in awe of Your goodness and the trustworthiness of Your word in My testimony;

For You spoke; and it was: You spoke and it appeared, just as You said; so also is Your Word in Me, a sure word; and a sure testimony;

Abba, in Me; Your word; is all the corrupt reasoning of the world brought to nothing; and its ways made of no effect.

Your wisdom and Your Word stand forever; I come to declare Your heart to all people of all generations;

All people and all nations are blessed, highly favored and spoken of eloquently by You, Abba; You have chosen them in You before the foundations of the world; they are Your inheritance;

Abba looks at His beloved from heaven; He has never stopped looking or pursuing them; nor will He relax His hold on them;

I came forth from Your heart Abba; Your holy dwelling; to declare Your name to all the inhabitants of the earth;

That all people could see themselves in Me; persuading and fashioning their hearts like Mine; beholding My life and My testimony at Your right hand;

A king is not delivered by the size of his army; nor men by the strength of their own hand;

A horse does not provide safety; nor can it, by its strength, deliver the one who rides it.

Behold the One who can save you from death, see Abba's heart for you revealed in Me; and your heart will go to rest in the hope of the same glory to be revealed in you;

Persuading you of His everlasting kindness to save your life from death and destruction and keep you from lacking any good thing; even in times of trouble; My testimony will be your food for life;

Whereby you will find your heart waiting confidently for the certain hope you behold in Me at His right hand: the sure testimony of how Abba is the One who redeems your life from destruction;

Seeing this; our hearts will sing and rejoice in Abba; because His word gives us confidence in His loving kindness and His holy name, Abba; the One who give us His life;

Let Us influence the hearts of all people, O Abba; that they may behold themselves in Me at Your right hand; and in seeing My testimony; they would have the sure hope of that same life and glory revealed in them.

Psalm 34

I will declare the goodness and loving kindness of You, Abba, in the earth; being filled with all grace and truth; My mouth overflows continually speaking of the heart and integrity of You, Abba.

My heart is to do Your will Abba and declare Your name; boasting in You and Your ability to give Your life as an inheritance; those who see their inability to give themselves life, will hear it, and be glad;

O Abba, Let Us magnify Your name in all the earth; Let Us exalt Your name together;

I sought You, Abba; and You heard Me and delivered Me from all My distress;

I will be a light to all those who are without life; that when they see how in trusting You, I was not disappointed; they will find the same confident expectation born in them; and their countenance will be lifted.

The humble man, who sees his inability to give himself life cries out; and in Me, the son of man; he sees that when I cried out to You in My affliction; You heard and delivered Me.

Abba; has heard the cry of the humble; and in Me; the son of man; He will bring an end to their distress and deliver them;

O taste and see the goodness and loving kindness of Abba revealed in Me; and in My testimony whereby I trusted in Him to save Me from death;

O worship Abba; all you who desire life; by partaking of His life for free in Me; for in Him, you will lack no good thing;

For those without the Sheppard do experience hunger; but in Me, they will never be in want; nor will they thirst or hunger again;

Come unto Me; listen and behold My testimony; I Am the teaching and instruction of Abba unto life;

If any man desires life; to love life and see good days; Abba has testified of it in Me; for all to behold;

How I did not open My mouth to defend myself or speak of My own strength and ability; and the doctrine that brings death was far from My lips;

Testifying to all people; how Abba has provided His life in Me; so that all can depart from laboring and toiling for life, and enter into Abba's incorruptible life where you will find your heart go to rest;

Grabbing hold of the gift of life Abba has given you in Me; is the thing in which He delights;

The eyes of Abba are upon Me; and upon all his beloved; they lack the ability to give themselves life; but it is by Abba's strength and ability that He will destroy death and all that seeks to harm them; He has heard their cry in Me; the righteous.

The face of Abba is against the way of death that has man in bondage to laboring and toiling for life; In Me; He will take vengeance on and destroy death and all that seeks to harm His beloved; cutting off even a remembrance of it in the earth;

You heard My cry Abba, and delivered Me; Your life and immortality revealed in Me, provides a sure testimony for all people; trusting You will hear and deliver them from all death and darkness;

For You, Abba are near to the brokenhearted; You come in Me, to heal them with the thing their heart has always desired; by clothing those who see their inability to give themselves life, with Your incorruptible life.

Many are the afflictions of Your beloved; Abba, they can behold in Me, how You deliver Me from death and all My distresses; keeping even My bones from being broken;

The proud, who say they can have life in this world by their own strength and ability; will be destroyed by partaking of that corrupted wisdom; seeing they stumble at the truth, that Abba is the only one who can clothe them with life free from their contribution; it leaves them barren;

In Me; Abba redeems the lives of His beloved; No one who beholds His incorruptible life in Me, and trusts in Abba to clothe them with the same life, will ever be barren.

Psalm 35

Let Us contend, O Abba, for those that strive in the earth for life; let Us bring an end to death and all that seeks to harm Your beloved.

Let Us strengthen the hearts of all people with confidence; speaking an eternal word about them in My testimony; in how You defended and delivered Me from all death and corruption;

Destroying the sting of death; and bringing an end to the way that brought death and corruption in the earth;

Quenching all the darts and taking out of the way, all that was against them; and that which pursued My life; speaking a word, in Me, to all

Your beloved that You, Abba, are the One who will save them from death and destruction;

Let Us spoil and confound the corrupt wisdom of the enemy; and let the way that sought to destroy Me; and all Your beloved; be brought to nothing;

Let Us chase the enemy away, like chaff before the wind.

Let Us pursue, chase down and destroy the way, which brought death upon Your beloved; let blindness cause the enemy to stumble.

For with intent to harm; has the enemy deceptively sought to entrap and bring destruction upon all Your beloved; digging a pit for My life.

Let Us bring destruction upon the enemy from where he knows not of; his own way will cause him to fall into a pit and bring destruction upon himself.

And I will be exceedingly joyful in You, My Abba; I rejoice in how You saved Me and all Your brethren from the enemy death; and all that sought to bring harm to their lives;

My testimony is a word declaring to all people that there is no one like You, Abba;

In Me; You redeemed all Your beloved; those who had no ability to save themselves; You destroyed the strong man; death; and the way of death that was against them; saving their lives from all that might destroy them;

Those who themselves were deceived, told lies and falsely charged Me with many things; accusing Me of hardships for the good things I had done and declared in Your name Abba; attempting to take My life;

But I saw them Abba, through Your heart for them; and the affliction and the fear of death that they were in bondage to;

I thought little of My ability to preserve My own life but trusted only in Your ability and Your incorruptible life; and the prayer that flowed from My heart was, “Abba, forgive them, for they know not what they do”.

I entered into their darkness so they could all see I was just like them; their friend and their brother; and I testified to them the way unto life, by refused to trust in My own strength but in Your incorruptible life, Abba;

But in My distress they rejoiced; scoffing and mocking Me; gnashing Me with their teeth; and tempting Me to save Myself;

Abba, with patience; You have watched Your beloved: desiring to rescue them in the fullness of time; from death and from the fear of death; rescue Me; Abba, in My affliction; and Your beloved from all that has sought to harm them.

I glorify and declare Your name, Abba, in all the earth; that You are the author of life; My testimony proclaims this to all people;

Let not My enemy find joy in their deception; neither let those who agree with their way to prosper in their attempt to harm Me or Your beloved;

For they speak not that which brings peace; but they disturb those who are quiet; just like they opened their mouths to speak falsely against Me;

Abba, You heard Me in My affliction and answered, that You are not far from Me and will never leave or forsake Me;

Let Us arise and execute Your judgment in Me; declaring the innocence of all people;

Showing forth Your judgment in Me, O Abba; in saving Me and all your beloved from death and all that sought to destroy them; seeing that death did not have any power over Me, in You raising Me up in an immortal human body and seating Me at Your right hand.

Let not the enemy prevail; nor allow the way that brought death to claim any victory;

Rather; let them be ashamed that tried to destroy Me and all Your beloved; let them be brought to nothing; let shame come on the one who tried to magnify his way over Your wisdom, Abba.

Let all Your beloved shout for joy and be glad; that see Your favor and loving kindness for them in Me; in You conquering their death in Me.

Let Your name be magnified, in My testimony; that they may see themselves in Me; and see Your good view and opinion of Me; seated at Your right hand, Abba; as their inheritance.

My testimony declares an eternal word to all people; that You conquered their death and all that sought to harm them; in beholding Me at Your right hand, will they praise Your name forevermore.

Psalm 36

The corrupt wisdom of death that caused men to feel orphaned in the earth; laboring and toiling to clothe themselves with life; says to Me; that they have no trust in their hearts toward You, Abba; to provide them with life;

For they trust in and love their own way; until it be revealed that their corrupt wisdom only leads to hate, envy and destruction;

The words of their mouth show forth the corrupt wisdom and deception dwelling in their hearts; even their mind and conscience have become defiled.

They bring sorrow upon themselves; laboring for life without benefit; and loving the very way that leads to destruction;

Let Us, Abba; show forth Your favor and everlasting kindness to all men; speaking unto them the word of truth; in Me; that will be seated in the heavens;

My testimony declares that You have destroyed death and all that sought to harm men; and that Your way unto an incorruptible life reigns supreme far above any other;

In Me; You have judged the innocence of all men; declaring a sure word that You; O Abba; are the One who will preserve their life;

How excellent is Your loving kindness; O Abba; I declare Your name in all the earth, that the children of men would place their trust in You to preserve their life from the corruption in the world;

They will be completely satisfied with the life You will clothe them with; that they behold in Me; and of the abundance of Your love, joy and peace dwelling in their heart;

You will show them loving kindness; and they will drink and be filled with Your pleasures forevermore;

For in Me; at your right hand; will they behold Your promise of the same life in them: In Me: the light of the world; will they behold and find the testimony of their life and their inheritance.

O Abba; Let Us declare Your loving kindness in the earth that all might know You; beholding in Me; that You are the One who saves them from destruction; and brings forth Your life and immortality in them;

When the corrupt wisdom of the world came to Me; I did not trust in My own strength and ability; Nor did the idea of trying to give Myself life have anything in Me;

In My testimony, may all those laboring and toiling for life behold themselves; seeing how death and its corrupt wisdom have been overthrown and cast down never able to rise again.

Psalm 37

Remain in peace and be not disturbed, when you see those who trust in the wisdom of the world; neither be envious of their way; when you see them prosper;

For their way will soon end in calamity; and all that is corrupt will wither away like grass;

Place your trust in Abba; for Abba has testified in Me that He will only be good to you; and dwell with you and feed you of His abundance;

In Abba, you will find great joy and delight; it is His good pleasure to give you His life and immortality; in Me; the thing that your heart has always desired.

Trust in Abba and His ability and not your own; and He will bring it to pass.

As certain as the sun rises; He has destroyed your death and given you new life; in Me; and has put your innocence on display like the noonday sun.

Let your heart go to rest in Abba, to defend and preserve your life; rejoice that He is the One who will bring it to pass; and do not be disturbed when you see those trusting in the wisdom of the world prosper; be not angry with them;

Cease from anger; rather let them go off to have it their own way; for your anger will not produce trust toward Abba in their hearts;

But Abba will destroy the way that brings harm to all His beloved; cutting it off from the earth; for Abba's heart's desire is that they would trust in Him; having His life and immortality as their inheritance.

For in a little while the way that brought death in the earth will be no more; it will be brought to nothing;

But those who see they have no ability to save themselves from death and give themselves life; but rather trust in Abba; will inherit the earth; finding their inheritance; in Me; seated at Abba's right hand; and will have everlasting joy and peace forevermore.

Those filled with labors and hardships will persecute those whose hearts are resting in Abba for life; and they will gnash down with their teeth upon them.

Abba laughs at the enemy; knowing His wisdom will swallow it up; making foolish and bringing it to nothing;

Death has drawn out its sword against all Abba's beloved. To destroy those who have no ability to give themselves life; even to slay Me, the righteous One.

It is death that will be swallowed up and the way of death brought to nothing.

Abba's incorruptible life in Me; the One trusting in Abba to conquer death and all that seeks to destroy His beloved; cannot be compared to the fleeting and corruptible riches of the world that end in destruction.

The strong arm of death that reigned over Abba's beloved will be broken in Me; Abba will defend and destroy all that was against His beloved; upholding them by strength of His hand.

Abba knows and defends His beloved in Me; their sure inheritance at His right hand; forevermore

Those who trust in Abba will never be disappointed when adversity comes; for His incorruptible life will satisfy them that they lack no good thing.

But all death and corruption will perish; and all sin and death will be consumed with the breath of His life; into smoke they will consume away.

The way of the enemy is to kill, steal and destroy; but in Me; the righteous; is Abba's everlasting kindness and incorruptible life revealed to all people as their inheritance;

For in Me; He has spoken well of all His beloved; that they shall inherit the earth; and has cut off the way that brought death in the earth.

Abba has appointed that the testimony of man be revealed in Me; and He delights in Me; the way unto life;

For though I be afflicted, He will never leave nor forsake Me; for He ever upholds Me: For though all sin and death come against Me; I will not be cast down but Abba will raise Me up immortal and seat Me at His right hand;

For in Me; the righteous; will they see that I was never forsaken; testifying to all people that Abba will never leave or forsake them; or ever leave them as orphans in the earth;

Abba has testified in Me, that He is gracious toward and will only ever be good to you; He has spoken well of you;

Giving you confidence to depart from trusting in yourself for life but only in Abba and His incorruptible life; in Me; at His right hand; forevermore.

For Abba delights in Me; His sure judgment that declares your innocence; He will never forsake those trusting in Him for life; but the way that brings death and harm to His beloved will He utterly cut off.

All those who trust that in Me; Abba has destroyed their death and given them His life; will dwell with Him in the same life and immortality they behold in Me; forever.

In Me; has Abba spoken and revealed His wisdom; and has judged the innocence of all people;

In Me has the teaching and instruction of Abba unto life been revealed; and His heart for all people; My testimony declares a sure word that you can trust Abba to preserve your life; to order your steps; that you will not fall.

Though all sin and death seeks to slay Me; Abba will never leave Me or forsake Me; or allow Me to see corruption;

I trust in Abba; and His wisdom is revealed in Me; that He will exalt Me to glory and honor at His right hand, free from My ability; for all to behold how death is conquered in My resurrection.

I have seen the way that brought death increase in the earth like a tree spreading its branches; casting a shadow of death over all.

Yet it will be cut off and come to nothing; and will not be found.

Consider Me; your own testimony; whom Abba has testified of and declared blameless before Him in love; seeing My incorruptible life as your inheritance; completely whole and at peace; forevermore

But all that which stands contrary to that life will perish; and the way that brought death will come to an end;

Abba has testified in Me; that He will protect and defend His beloved from death and all seeks to harm them; He will deliver them; by Me; His right hand;

By strength of Abba's hand will they be delivered; beholding in Me; that Abba can be trusted to save them from all death and corruption.

Psalm 38

O Abba, let Us testify to man that You will not rebuke them in Your wrath; nor chasten them in displeasure.

For they have viewed Your judgments as against them; to come down harshly on them;

Let Us show them that Your passion to give them life; was never against them; to cause them any harm; rather that You might take vengeance on all that sought to harm them; comforting them; and giving them Your life free from their labor;

For the way that says, they must labor and toil for life has laid a burden on them too hard to bear;

Leaving them feeling beaten, bloodied and bruised; troubled and in mourning;

They are perishing and find no rest in their bodies; feeble, sore and broken; and groaning in their hearts;

Abba, their groaning for life has not been hid from Your eyes;

And because their hearts are occupied with how to give themselves life; their strength fails them; leaving them hopeless;

Their friends and neighbors have abandon them and left them for dead;

Just like I came to My own people; yet they received Me not; when those who sought My life; laid snares for Me; speaking with false accusations; seeking ways to harm Me;

But I did not receive their falsehoods, nor did I open My mouth to justify or defend Myself.

For in You Abba, do I place My trust; O Abba, My God; You are the One who vindicates Me;

And in Me; do You testify Abba; that You will not allow the enemy to rejoice over Me: that all who behold Your faithfulness in Me, will have confidence in You; Abba; to protect and defend their life;

For when all sin and death came against Me; and I was feeling sorrowful unto death; You strengthened Me; and I declared that I would not trust in My own strength and ability; but in You Abba for life;

That all may behold; in Me; how the corrupt wisdom of laboring to preserve your own life, only brings hardships and death; and rejoice seeing how I have triumphed over it; and have declared Your wisdom unto life;

The enemy was like a strong man against all of Your beloved Abba; and those lusting after life by their own ability; are multiplied against them; heaping hardships on them, too hard to bear;

Their corrupt wisdom is ever seeking to bring harm upon Your beloved.

O Abba, You are never far from Me; and You testify in Me; to all people; that you will never leave or forsake them; or relax Your hold upon them.

You make haste to help Me; O Abba; destroying all that is against Me; that in saving Me from death and decay; and seating Me at Your right hand; that all may behold in Me; Your life and immortality as their inheritance.

Psalm 39

Man has said, "I will preserve my own life; that I do not err from my way; I will keep watch over my own tongue;" though death and destruction is ever before their eyes;

They became speechless; and were blinded to even that which was beautiful, and their sorrow increased;

Their hearts burned within them for life; the groaning of their heart consumed them; saying;

Lord, reveal to me my end; that I might know the length of my days; when will all this hurt and sorrow end? How long until this laboring and toiling for life is cut off?

Abba; let Us bring it to an end; for all the works of man are to labor without benefit;

Surely all men walk in the shadow of death; they labor in vain with no ability to give themselves life; heaping up corruptible things which all perish and are useless; leaving them hopeless.

And now; Abba; let Us reveal their sure hope in Me; that all might behold and patiently wait for the same hope to be revealed in them.

Deliver them from the power of sin and death; testifying in Me; that no one who trusts in You will ever be ashamed;

Though man was blinded; their hearts did groan within them; and You Abba, answered; by removing the enemy that was against them; consuming it and bringing it to nothing.

Abba; when You testified in Me; of Your incorruptible life, free from My ability; You made foolish the corrupt wisdom of laboring for life without benefit; speaking a sure word to the hearts of all men; of Your incorruptible life free from their works.

Abba; You have heard the cry and the prayers of Your beloved; and answered in Me; testifying that You will never leave them as orphans in the earth.

Abba; You have redeemed those who are perishing; destroying death and all that sought to harm them; so that those who trust in Me and My testimony as their own; have the sure hope of the same incorruptible life to be revealed in them.

Psalm 40

I waited; looking eagerly for You Abba; and You heard My cry and strengthened Me in the midst of My affliction;

You brought Me up out of Hades and the grave; establishing My inheritance at Your right hand;

And You have put a new song in My mouth; speaking an eternal word about Me and Your good view and opinion of man; many will behold My testimony and place their trust in You Abba;

You have spoken well of man in Me; Abba; and by trusting only in Your ability to protect and defend My life; I gave no credence to the way of those trusting in the lies of self-preservation;

O Abba My God; many are Your wonderful works which You have done in Me; and Your thoughts and loving kindness which You have always had toward man; they are too many to number;

Sacrifice and offering could never conquer man's death and satisfy Your hope and desire to give them your life and immortality; You opened My ears and revealed this to Me; burnt offering and sin offering You did not require of Me;

Then I saw it; and said; behold, Abba, You have sent Me; and I come to do Your will; the entire writings of this book have been made flesh in Me; and written of Me;

I delight to do Your will; O Abba; Your teaching and instruction of life is in My heart; and out of the abundance of My heart I declare it.

I have revealed Your heart to all people; Abba; how that You will save them from death; and all that seeks to destroy them; and I have not refrained My lips; O Abba; from declaring that You are the giver of life;

My testimony declares Your desire to rescue man from all sin and death and give them Your life; You have spoken a sure word in Me; revealing Your life and immortality; at your right hand.

O Abba; Your loving kindness and Your truth have been revealed in Me; to all people;

Testifying; how You will not withhold Your tender mercies from them; O Abba let Your loving kindness and Your truth influence My heart and the hearts of men to rest in You to protect and defend their life from destruction;

For when all sin and death circled around Me; and death desired to take hold of Me; and tell Me I was not the Son; in My affliction I cried; "Abba!" deliver Me;

And it pleased You Abba to deliver Me from death and that which sought to destroy Me; putting to shame all that was against man and bringing it to nothing; so that the way that brought death in the earth would be barren.

Abba; let man rejoice in seeing that My testimony is their testimony; trusting in and seeking after You; that their joy might be full and complete; by beholding their inheritance of life and immortality in Me; at your right hand.

Behold; I am meek and lowly in heart: refusing to use My own ability to give Myself life; but rather I trusted in You Abba; to save and deliver Me from death; in the midst of My affliction;

Testifying in Me; to all people; a sure word of confidence; that You will also save and deliver them in their affliction; O Abba.

Psalm 41

Abba; You have spoken well of man in Me; testifying of Your mercy and loving kindness toward those who see they have no ability to give themselves life; by delivering Me in My affliction;

Abba; You preserve and protect My life; delivering Me from death; and in Me; You have spoken well of all those upon the earth; that You will also deliver them from death;

Abba; You strengthened Me in My distress; and You have removed the sting of death.

For when all sin and death came against Me; I said; Abba, into Your hands do I trust My life; and You rescued Me; raising Me up and seating Me at Your right hand forevermore;

The enemy tried to tell Me and Your beloved that they lacked life and godliness; and that they were orphaned in the earth and would perish;

They speak empty words of no benefit; heaping up more hardships and labors upon the hearers;

All that reject Your way unto life Abba; speak against Me; and devise to harm Me; saying;

“He is smitten and stricken of God; He saved others, let Him save himself.”

Even one of My closest friends; who I did eat bread with has betrayed Me.

But You Abba have influenced My heart of Your loving kindness toward Me and all Your beloved; and You have raised Me up seating Me at your right hand; for all to behold Your life and good opinion that You have prepared for them; in Me;

By My testimony; can all know and be certain that just as Abba has shown His mercy and loving kindness to Me; by conquering death and giving Me His life; He has also conquered their death and His incorruptible life is their inheritance.

Abba; You declared My innocence in the resurrection; and seated Me at your right hand; forevermore; that all might behold themselves in Me; holy and without blame before You in love.

I declare Abba's name in heaven and earth; His grace and truth are from everlasting to everlasting; throughout all ages, world without end. Amen and Amen.

Psalm 42

As a deer longs for a drink from the brook, so is My desire to share in Your life and You in Mine, O Abba.

I long for the day I will stand before You forever in glorified human flesh.

When I was sorrowful unto death; and the enemy surrounded Me saying; where is your God now?

I poured out My heart to You Abba and You strengthened Me; and I remembered the glory I had with You before the world was; and the joy that was set before Me; and I heard Your voice answer; saying;

Why are You cast down? O My Son; and why are You disturbed in Your spirit; hope in Me; Abba; for I will surely glorify and rescue Your life and seat You at My right hand;

O My Abba; though My life is cast down within Me; into Your hands do I trust My life;

Death has come upon Me to overtake Me; But You Abba will never leave or forsake Me;

For You Abba; directed Your loving kindness to Me in the daytime; and You put a new song in My heart in the nighttime; O Abba; the shepherd of My life.

In My affliction; I cried out to You Abba; My God my God why have You forsaken Me? And You heard My cry and delivered Me; from all the oppression of the enemy;

With a sword in My side My enemies did reproach Me; saying where is your God? You answered Me; Abba; saying;

Why are You cast down? O My Son; and why are You disturbed in Your spirit; hope in Me; Abba; for I will surely glorify and rescue Your life and seat You at My right hand.

Psalm 43

Judge My innocence O Abba; protect and defend My life from the adversary, death; and deliver Me from that which seeks to harm Me.

For You are My God and My strength O Abba; You will not cast Me away; or leave Me in sorrow; under the oppression of the enemy.

Testify in Me of Your grace and truth; persuading all people of their inheritance; in beholding how, You raised Me up in an incorruptible human body and seated Me at Your right hand.

In the midst of My sorrow You strengthen Me; turning My sadness into joy; and I rested; for when I cried out in My affliction, "Abba!" You answered Me; saying;

Why are You cast down? O My Son; and why are You disturbed in Your spirit; hope in Me; Abba; for I will surely glorify and rescue Your life and seat You at My right hand; forevermore.

Psalm 44

We have heard with our ears, O Abba, what You have spoken to Your children through the prophets, of all Your wonderful works;

Prophesying, how in Me; You will destroy and cast out the enemy from the earth, which afflicted all the people.

For they did not possess the land by their own ability, neither did they save themselves by their own hand: but by Me, Your right hand and arm; the light of Your face to the world; and by Your favor and everlasting kindness were they delivered.

You are My King, O Abba; You testify in Me; the deliverance of all people.

Let Us destroy the enemy; let Us declare Your name Abba; and testify how You trample underfoot, that which rises up against Me;

For I do not trust in My own strength; or My own ability to save Myself; but into Your hands do I commit My life; Abba;

You save Me from death and put to shame and disarm that which sought to harm Me and all Your beloved;

In You Abba; do I boast all day long; and at Your right hand is praise and fullness of joy; forever.

But in Your everlasting kindness did You reject man's union to the corrupt wisdom of the trusting in the strength of their hand for life; to fight in their own strength.

You turned away from that which made them barren; and from that which sought to destroy them.

You gave them over to their own way where they were eaten, like sheep killed for food; and scattered among the enemy;

To be destroyed at the hand of the enemy for no profit;

A reproach among men, to be mocked by all around; a laughingstock;

Their shame was always before them; causing them to cover their faces, perceiving all this as Your disapproval; But it was the voice of the enemy that cursed; and the enemy that sought to cause them harm.

All this has come upon Me; yet I have not forgotten Your truth Abba; but I ever trust in Your promise.

My heart is not moved; neither have My steps turned back from Your truth;

Though I am surrounded by the serpent and covered with the shadow of death;

I declare Your name O Abba; saying, into Your hands do I trust My life; not by strength of My own hand O Abba; or by any other name;

For You Abba search the heart; and have revealed the truth to man's heart in Me; In resting in You Abba and Your arm for life;

For I was counted as a sheep for the slaughter; persecuted, distressed and naked; saying;

Awake and hear My cry O Abba; save Me in My affliction;

Though it seemed You hid Your face for a moment; in everlasting kindness You delivered Me; testifying that You will never leave or forsake Me or Your beloved;

For though death surrounded Me and My life was bowed down to the dust of the earth; You saved Me Abba; and did not leave Me in Hades or allow Me to see corruption;

But You Abba delivered Me from death; and raised Me up in an immortal flesh and bone body; seating Me at Your right hand; declaring an eternal word and a certain hope to all people; that in Your everlasting kindness; You will also deliver those who rest in You for life; saving them from death and raising them unto Your life and immortality.

Psalm 45

Abba's heart overflows with excitement of a good matter; speaking and revealing in Me; the beauty He sees when He beholds the ones who He has made. My tongue is like the pen of a ready writer; to declare Abba's heart to all people;

Abba; You have bestowed upon Me; Your glory and honor; that the children of men might find their beauty in Me; The abundance of Your heart flows from My lips; and You have blessed Me forever;

You clothed Me with grace and truth; O Abba; with Your splendor and good opinion.

And in Your strength and not My own do I declare the truth; that in Me; will You destroy the enemy; and at Your right hand You shall show forth the incredible riches of their inheritance.

Your arrows of truth and judgment are a death blow to the corrupt wisdom of the enemy; that which has sought to destroy Your beloved.

You seat Me Abba at Your right hand in an incorruptible human body; forever and ever; establishing and declaring the truth about all people; and rightly judging their innocence.

Abba; You love that which brings life and hate that which destroys or harms Your beloved; therefore Abba; did You anoint Me with gladness above all My friends; and set that joy before Me; that We might bring it to pass.

Abba; You have clothed Me with a sweet aroma of myrrh, aloes and cinnamon; they fill My palaces; the chamber where I bring Your beloved.

I desire Your beloved as a bridegroom does his beautiful bride; to stand at My right hand decked out in gold;

Listen and consider My beloved; I have delivered you from your bondage; cast off the garment of captivity; and dwell in My house forevermore.

I have greatly desired your beauty; I am Your Lord; I want to serve you with My life. Showering you with gifts; whereby even the richest will see your favor;

Abba's glorious good opinion of you will clothe you with the same life and immortality you see in Me;

My bride is presented to Me; perfect and complete; clothed in immortality; with rejoicing and gladness will she enter into My presence; kings and royal priests shall you be in the earth.

Abba has made My name to be remembered for all generations; a testimony for all people; therefore, shall the people praise You Abba; forever and ever.

Psalm 46

Abba is My refuge, My strength and My hope; My help and comfort from all calamity and affliction;

Therefore, I will not fear, though the world presses in on Me and all the things that are seen are shaken, and carried away to deep waters;

Though the waters rage and trouble surrounds Me; I am fully persuaded;

Abba is a river of life; and the streams of that river fill Me; the city of God; with joy and gladness; Abba's life and peace flood Me; the tabernacle of the most high;

Abba is always with Me and in Me; I will not be moved: He is constantly persuading My heart of His everlasting kindness toward Me; and all His beloved.

The enemy roars and the kingdoms are shaken; trying to speak a word of lack to Me and to all Abba's beloved; Abba has spoken an eternal word in Me; the sound of Abba voice spoken in Me; destroys and dissolves the enemy in the earth.

Abba has testified in Me; that He is the Lord; the King of glory; He is the Lord strong and mighty, testifying that the same life and immortality you behold in Me will also be revealed in you; your refuge and inheritance.

Come; behold in Me the works of Abba; how in Me; He destroyed all sin and death and that which sought to harm His beloved;

Abba's yoke is easy. He has ended the corrupt wisdom in the earth that caused men to struggle to give themselves life; by disarming and removing its sting; the life and immortality they behold in Me, overcomes and consume it;

Stand still in awe and know that the word that Abba has spoken in Me; is a sure and eternal word about you; that word will never see corruption; and is far above all that is in the world, swallowing up any corrupt wisdom; bringing it to nothing.

For Abba is the Lord; the King of glory; He is the Lord strong and mighty, testifying that the same life and immortality you behold in Me, will also be revealed in you; for He is your refuge and inheritance.

Psalm 47

All Your beloved Abba clap their hands and shout with great joy at the sound of Your voice; at the word You declare in Me; victory over sin and death;

For You Abba are a great and awesome God and have set Me as King over all the earth; to subdue all things; for all people and nations; bringing all things under our feet.

You have chosen Me Abba; as their inheritance before the foundation of the world; because of the beauty You behold in them; the apple of Your eyes; the ones You love, Abba; You have seated Me at Your right hand; in Your life and immortality; declaring the victory over sin and death.

Sing praises to Abba; sing praises unto our King; sing praises with understanding; for He has revealed in Me; His life and immortality;

Abba's wisdom reigns supreme; His testimony; in Me at His right hand; speaks a word to all people; of the life He has set apart for them;

That Abba has reconciled all things and all people back to Himself; He has highly exalted Me as a testimony; that you are His beloved child that He has promised to clothe with His life and immortality.

Psalm 48

Abba is magnified and His light shines in Me; the city of God; the place prepared and set apart for Him to dwell.

Beautiful is the height of that city and what delight Abba has in seating Me at his right hand; I am His joy and the joy of the whole earth; the dwelling place of the great King.

Abba has testified to the hearts of His beloved in Me; that He has always desired to come and seat them at His right hand for a refuge;

For all the kings of the world and its wisdom were assembled against Me; they passed by together.

They saw the brightness of My rising and they marveled; and they were troubled and distressed in heart and they took flight seeing their inability to give themselves life;

Fear took hold of them; distress and pain in their hearts as a woman in labor;

Behold Abba has broken the power of death and brought life and immortality to light in Me;

You have heard, and have seen the testimony of Abba in Me; that by seating Me in a glorified human body at His right hand; He has revealed that He has always desired to join Himself to you and seat you; His beloved; at His right hand;

Abba has established; and has declared His desire in Me; to come and joined Himself in perfect union to you; His dwelling place forever.

The loving kindness of Abba that was revealed in Me has come to dwell in the hearts of His beloved; His holy temple.

According to Your name; O Abba; does Your light shine to the ends of the earth; in Me; Your right hand; that destroyed sin and death and all that sought to harm Your beloved.

Let all people and all nations rejoice; and Your sons and daughters be glad because of Your righteous judgments; to declare their innocence and bring to nothing that which could harm them.

Behold how in Me; Abba has spoken a word about the beauty He sees in you; declaring the glorious good opinion He has of you;

Remember how He has destroyed sin and death; and seated you at His right hand; as a co-heir and co-sharer of His life forever; declaring an eternal word to all people and generations;

For this God is our Abba forever and ever; He has testified in Me that He has conquered death and given His life and immortality as an inheritance.

Psalm 49

Hear the voice of your Abba in Me; all you people; Listen closely; all you inhabitants of the world;

Both those who see their inability; and those who trust in their own strength to give themselves life; whether they be rich or poor; together.

My mouth declares the wisdom and the heart of Abba; that He is the protector and defender of My life and the life of His beloved; and the meditation of Abba's heart gives understanding that He will never leave or forsake Me or allow Me to see corruption.

In parables; I utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

Why then would I fear in the day when death tries to tell Me that I lack the life of a son; when the corrupt wisdom of the world attempts to entice Me to enlist My own ability to save Myself?

Those who trust in themselves; boast in their own strength for life; and in the multitude of things they can obtain by their own efforts.

None of them can by their own ability or substance raise themselves from death; nor can they provide the offering that could save their brother from death.

For the redemption of their life is precious and of such value that it can only be found in Me; the Word made flesh; and in the incorruptible life you see in Me seated at Abba's right hand in an immortal flesh and bone body; forever;

The abundance of perishable things can never produce the life that Abba desires to give you; nor keep can it keep you from the grave and corruption;

For you see that both wise and foolish men die; and leave their substance to others;

In their hearts they say and believe that their houses and substance will continue forever to all generations; they trust in that which they have built with their own hands and their own name;

Nevertheless, the way that seems right to them will destroy them; those who trust in it like beasts will perish;

Their way is foolishness; yet for generations their descendants have ignorantly believed the same;

Like sheep they have been led to the grave; death has been their guide; but I am the good shepherd and Abba has given Me dominion over all flesh to consume death and the grave of its power;

Abba is My shepherd and redeems My life from death; not allowing Me to see corruption; receiving Me unto Himself and seating Me at His right hand;

Abba has testified in Me; that you do not need be afraid when you see death and it tries to tell you; you lack what you need for life; or when you see the increase of those trusting in themselves for life;

For those things will all perish; and will all see corruption;

For though while a man lives, he tries to build a good report of his life through the abundance of things; and other men sing his praises; trusting in this way leads to death and corruption; just as it did for his ancestors.

For there is only incorruptible life found in Abba; and Abba has declared your sure testimony in Me; by raising Me up in an immortal flesh and bone body and seating Me at His right hand;

But a man that is trying to give himself life through corruptible things; does not see or understand the wisdom that Abba has revealed in Me; and is like a beast that will perish.

Psalm 50

Abba; You are a mighty God; even the Lord; who has spoken over the earth from the beginning; calling for all things to be gathered unto Himself.

Abba's light has shined out of Me; His dwelling place; and has shown forth the beauty and perfection He sees in Me.

Abba comes declaring the truth in Me; and like a fire it devours and swallows up all things contrary to His life; and like a whirlwind sweep them away.

He has declared from the heavens above and unto the earth, the innocence of His people.

Abba has always desired to gather His beloved unto Himself; those who see the Word of their testimony in Me;

And how Abba has in Me; destroyed death and all that sought to harm His beloved; for in raising Me from the grave in immortal flesh and bone, seating Me at His right hand; Abba has declared that death and the grave have lost their sting.

Hear Abba! for He has spoken a word to Me and in Me; testifying that I can trust Him with My life; to save Me from death and give Me His life as a gift; declaring, I am God, even Your Abba who gives You My life.

I will not correct you for your many offerings when they are born from the joy of seeing the life I have promised you;

But it has never been my desire to take bulls and goats from your house or your table. I don't need them. All the beasts of the earth are mine, I own them all.

If I were hungry I would not ask you; because the world is mine and everything in it if that is what I desired.

Do you think I feast on bulls and drink the blood of goats?

Rather, I have waited with great anticipation for Your offering of joy and thanksgiving; and seeing it overflow in Your heart toward Me when You behold My testimony; fully persuaded of the promise to save You from death and corruption and give You My life. This is the offering I have truly desired from the beginning.

And in the day of trouble, You cried out to Me; “Abba” and I delivered You and You glorified Me.

But to those who labor and toil to give themselves life; Abba says; apart from Me, what could you ever do to produce My life? Or that the fruit of your mouth would ever glorify Me;

Seeing you rejected My life as a gift; you discard My words behind you.

When you saw a thief who takes men’s lives and puts them in bondage, you conspired with him; and became a partaker with those who run after false gods.

Your mouth heaps hardships on men too hard to bear; and your tongue speaks lies about Abba and man;

You sit and speak against your brother; the son of man; and you slander your own mother’s son.

All these things you have said and done to darken My council and I was silent; you even thought that I was just like you; but I will declare My testimony before your eyes; admonishing and setting everything in order; reconciling all things back to Myself.

Consider My Testimony, you that have forgotten the promise of Abba to give you His life as a gift; lest you be destroyed; for there is no one else who can deliver you but Abba.

Whosoever offers praise, glorifies Abba; calling upon His name; bringing the offering He has always desired: when you see Me offering thanksgiving to Abba; in fulfillment of the life Abba has promised from the beginning; It declares to you the salvation of Abba and His incorruptible life as your inheritance.

Psalm 51

O Abba; You are merciful and gracious unto Your beloved according to Your loving kindness: Let Us show forth the abundance of Your goodness, truth and tender mercy; blotting out all that is contrary to Your beloved;

Purging their hearts from the world's wisdom and removing the death reigning over them;

For the fruit of death manifesting in them from the corrupt wisdom they have believed on is ever before them;

Against Your truth Abba have they believed; going contrary; they were not partaking of Your life; this way brought hardships and death upon them;

O that they would see that way only brings death; so that they may clearly see Your judgment and be persuaded of the word You have spoken in Me: Your judgment of their innocence and of Your life as a free gift.

Behold, I was formed inside of a world filled with corruptness and darkness; and my mother did conceive Me in a world where death was reigning over man.

Behold, You Abba desired to reveal the truth to Me and in Me; and were ever influencing My heart; nurturing and making known to Me Your wisdom;

I delight to do Your will Abba; to bear their death in My body and purge their conscience with My blood; declaring their innocence and washing their slate clean.

You lay before Me the joy and gladness of hearing those who have been under the crushing weight of sin and death as they rejoice in seeing their testimony in Me;

Putting an end to that union which made them barren; blotting out all that is contrary to Your wisdom and Your way unto life;

That they might behold in Me; a new creation; and see their innocence;
O Abba, and be born from the Spirit of life;

You have testified in Me; that in bearing their sin in My body, You never cast Me away from Your presence; or removed Your Spirit from Me;

But rather You restored Me to the glory I had with You before the world was; and have seated Me at Your right hand in an immortal human body; testifying how in trusting You with My life; You saved Me from death and upheld Me with Your incorruptible life;

Now, I have spoken a word to all those experiencing the fruit of death; teaching them Your ways; and those who were not partaking of Your life can see Your life as their inheritance.

Removing all guilt and shame; O Abba, You delivered Your beloved from the sting of death; and all that sought to bring them harm;

O Abba; You opened My lips and I have declared Your name in the earth; and Your good opinion of man;

For You Abba never desired sacrifice or burnt offerings because it could never satisfy Your hope for Your life with man;

Rather, Your longing desire was that in man seeing their inability to give themselves life; they could behold in Me Your desire and ability to give them Your life as a gift; O Abba; this is the only sacrifice that could ever satisfy Your hearts desired;

It was Your good pleasure; to reveal in Me, Your desire to share Your life eternally with Your beloved: Let Us make our abode with them forever.

Then will You be pleased Abba with the sacrifice and offering that destroyed death and all that was against Your beloved; and gave them Your life as an inheritance; then will they offer praise; rejoicing in their hearts; in the certain hope that they can trust You Abba with their life.

Psalm 52

Why do you trust in your own strength to save you from death; O mighty man? It is Abba who will preserve and protect your life; His everlasting kindness endures forever;

Your tongue spews perverse things; from the corrupt wisdom that has pierced your heart; working deceit that leads to destruction;

You love to exalt your ability to give yourself life rather than the goodness of Abba and His ability to save you from death and all that would cause you harm; giving you His life;

You love the way unto death; O you perverted wisdom;

Abba will destroy you forever; plucking you up by the roots from your dwelling; dying away the death you have brought upon His beloved in the earth.

Those who see how in Me Abba has destroyed death and given His life will stand in awe; and rejoice;

Seeing also how the man that made not God his strength but trusted in the fruit he could produce and accumulate by his own hands; had only death reigning over him; how trying to strengthen himself led to his own destruction;

Behold I am your inheritance; His anointed; seated at Abba's right hand; a man in beauty and immortality; I trust in the mercy and everlasting kindness of Abba forever and ever;

My testimony will forever speak a word of what Abba has done, in Me; to save His beloved from death; and for all those partaking of His life to behold and rest; trusting in Abba.

Psalm 53

The one who labors and toils for life, does not see You as Abba, but says certainly if there is a God He doesn't care about me, I need to give myself life; this corrupt wisdom does not allow their heart to rest in You and Your life Abba.

You look down from heaven upon Your beloved, longing for them to understand Your everlasting kindness toward them; and Your desire to share Your life with them; that they might look to You for life;

Every one of them has turned away from Your way unto life; they all have corruption and death reigning over them; there is none that rests in You and Your ability to give them life, no, not one.

Have all those laboring for life not seen it is the way of death? They lay burdens too hard to bear on those who see they cannot give themselves life; not acknowledging that there is only life in You Abba.

There is no rest in this corrupt way of thinking but only torment; Abba has brought rest in Me; bringing destruction upon all that which was against you; putting it to shame; Abba has despised the way that brought death to His beloved.

O that all might see their salvation and inheritance in Me; Your dwelling place, Your word made flesh; for In Me, Abba, You have rescued Your people from bondage, and everyone can rest in You and rejoice and be glad.

Psalm 54

Deliver Me, O Abba; testifying in Me of Your name and Your strength.

Hear My prayer, O Abba; give ear, that all might hear the words of My mouth;

For those who have turned aside from Your way unto life have come against Me; tempting Me to trust in My ability, seeking to destroy My life; they do not see You are the only way unto life;

Behold, My testimony declares that You Abba are My helper and My deliverer; You uphold Me uphold My life, setting Me at Your right hand; giving sure hope to all who see Your promise of life made immortal flesh in Me;

Abba Your truth will destroy the way unto death; bringing it to nothing, cutting it off from the earth;

With joy and thanksgiving, I will freely offer the sacrifice You have desired from the foundation of the world; O Abba; that all might rest in You; partaking of Your incorruptible life as their inheritance;

For You Abba have delivered Me out of all adversity; destroying the enemy; death; and all that was against Me; bringing to light in Me, the desire of Your heart for all Your beloved.

Psalm 55

O Abba You hear My prayer and hide not Your face from Me in My affliction;

You attend unto Me and hear Me when I cry: I groan loudly in My trouble;

Because death has crept up on Me trying to tell Me I lack Your life; I am persecuted and pressed in by those who reject Your ways; they accuse Me of using evil to do good; tempting Me to save Myself; and in anger they hate Me.

My heart bears the pain of those who have all their lives been subjected to the terrors of death; they have fallen upon Me;

This fear of death has tried to come upon Me and cover Me; to overwhelm Me; saying

Who will give Me wings like a dove; so that I might take flight and be at rest? Only in You Abba, does My heart find rest, hiding Me safely from troubles; escaping the affliction of the enemies that have encamped around me;

Let Us destroy, O Abba; the corrupt wisdom that has caused violence and strife to dwell in the hearts of Your beloved;

Day and night it torments them; trouble and sorrows fill their hearts; Labor and toil are in the midst of them; It never departs from them; constantly speaking lies to their hearts;

For the ones who accuse and reject Me are not My enemies; if it was only the one who did magnify himself against Me; I would have just concealed Myself from him;

But it was man; My coequals, My friends, and My love ones;

We had sweet fellowship and intimate conversation as we walked in Your house together Abba;

Certainly death has seized upon them, reigning over them; hardships and labor consume their conscience; and trouble follows them;

As for Me; I call upon You Abba and You rescue My life from death and corruption;

Morning, noon and night, I fellowship with You Abba and You always hear My voice when I cry out to You;

Delivering My soul from the corruption in this world; ministering peace to Me from all that comes against Me;

You hear Me Abba, and bring to nothing all that tried defiled Your image and likeness; You have reigned supreme from the beginning;

Those trusting in themselves for life refuse to change their minds; being blinded to Your goodness toward them; therefore, they do not trust You as Abba;

Rather they plot to kill Me and those resting in You for life; betraying My friendship and seeing Me as their enemy;

Their words are smooth and flattering but their hearts are deceived and set against Your way unto life Abba;

I trust My life to You Abba; Testifying that You will sustain Me; My life is contained in You; You will never allow Me to see corruption but will rather, save Me from death, raising Me up to sit at Your right hand forevermore;

And You O Abba will conquer death and all that seeks to destroy Your beloved; death and corruption will be swallowed up in immortality; though some will reject Your life and perish; I have trusted in You; speaking an eternal word, so that all flesh can go to rest in the certainty they will inherit the same glory and immortality revealed in Me.

Psalm 56

O Abba; You ever influence My heart that You can be trusted to preserve and protect My life from all harm; for scoffer's pant after Me seeking to trample Me; daily they press in to crush Me;

The enemy seeks to destroy Me; And daily brings accusation against Me; You, O Abba are the most high who brings grace and truth;

In My time of affliction; I trust in You.

O Abba; In the word You have spoken that I am Your beloved son, do I find My testimony and give praise; in You O Abba have I placed My trust; not fearing what flesh can do to Me;

Every day they pervert My words; and the word that I am Your son; all their thoughts are against Me and are defiled in believing the lie that they must clothe themselves with life;

They abide in their own way, to give themselves life; waiting for opportunity to take mine from Me;

Shall they escape death by this corrupted wisdom? In Your passion; O Abba; let Us triumph over and cast down this way that seeks to destroy Your beloved;

You; Abba testified in Me; that You saw My tears and heard My cry and recorded them for all to remember;

That when I cried to You, You heard Me in My affliction; conquering the sting of death; fully persuading Me that I can trust You with My life; that You Abba would never leave or forsake Me, but are always for Me;

In You Abba; I have spoken well of and declare Your word to all people; In Me Abba is Your grace and truth exalted and revealed;

In You Abba have I placed My trust; I am not afraid that man can do anything to harm My life; being fully persuaded of the incorruptible life You have promised Me;

Testifying to all people; how You preserved and protected My life; not leaving Me in the grave to see corruption but raising Me up and seating Me at Your right hand in glory and immortality.

Joy and Thanksgiving are upon Me; O Abba; the offering the You have desired from the beginning; testifying in Me of the promise; to save Me and all your beloved from death and corruption; raising them to the same glory they behold in Me;

For in You having delivered Me from sin and death; and seating Me at Your right hand in an incorruptible flesh and bone body; have You declared how You can be trusted to also deliver all who place their trust in You; that they may walk with You Abba in the cool of the day in the same glory and immortality forevermore.

Psalm 57

Let Your mercy be upon Me; O Abba; ever persuading My heart of Your loving kindness; for My heart has found its rest in You; trusting in You to preserve and defend My life until all affliction has passed;

I cry unto You Abba, the most high; for it is by strength of Your hand that all things are brought to perfection and completion;

You have sent Me into the world; saving Me from death and corruption and all that seeks to destroy Me and Your beloved; You sent Me; as a testimony for all people; declaring Your heart in grace and truth;

I dwell among hungry lions who fiercely seek their prey to stay alive; men, who in their lust for life through their own ability, labor and toil; seeking to take it by force;

Let Us exalt Your wisdom in the earth, above the heavens; O Abba; to give them Your life as a gift; Let Your good view and opinion of all Your beloved be proclaimed in Me;

The enemy has prepared a net that I might stumble at the truth; My soul is pressed in and brought low in My distress: they have dug a pit for Me; and by their own wisdom do they themselves fall into its trap;

My heart is fully persuaded of Your loving kindness; O Abba: that life is only found in You; and out of My heart does My mouth speak; “into Your hands do I trust My life.”

A new song have You put in My mouth that all men may see it; declaring and speaking well of Your ability to save Me from all that seeks to destroy Me;

Awake to Abba’s inheritance for you, in seeing the glory revealed in Me; awake and see in Me, how it is Abba who will save you and give you His life as a gift; raising You up to the same glory and immortality.

I declare this word from Your heart; O Abba; I sing it unto all people and all nations;

For Your loving kindness for all people; that was testified in saving Me from death and raising Me to glory and immortality; is great in influencing men's heart of Your truth; that You have given them the promise of this same incorruptible life as a gift;

Let Your wisdom be exalted; O Abba; above the heavens; Let the glory and immortality You revealed in Me be above any word in all the earth.

Psalm 58

If you really want to speak of the justice of Abba; O congregation, instead of distorting it; see how it is revealed in Me; how that Abba has only ever wanted to come and destroy the death that was reigning over you and give you His life as a gift; otherwise, are you really judging correctly; O you sons of men?

For your heart and conscience are filled with labor and toil for life unto destruction; you conclude you are orphaned in the earth and must take it by force;

Those who labor and toil for life, feel separated from the life of Abba; as soon as that lie gives birth in their heart, they go astray;

This lie is born from the father of lies, the serpent; that snake whose corrupt wisdom has been planted in the earth; hardening men's hearts from hearing the truth;

You cannot overcome it in your own strength; even with cunning skill and eloquent speech, the wisdom of man can never subdue its power;

O Abba, let Us break the power and the sting of death; tearing down the way that leads to destruction;

Let all that seeks to destroy Your beloved fade away in an instant and be brought to nothing; circumcising their heart from the wisdom of the serpent.

Like a snail that melts away, so all that is contrary to My beloved will disintegrate, never to rise up again.

Before you can feel the sting of death, Abba shall take it away in a whirlwind; in His passion, He will utterly destroy death and all that might bring harm to His children.

All those who trust that it is Abba who will come to take vengeance on death and all that is against His beloved, shall rejoice; He shall trample over death; bringing an end to it in Me.

So that man can behold and say; surely there is a reward for all who trust in Abba to save them from death and bring forth the very same life they see in Me, in them; certainly Abba is the One who restores all things in the earth, destroying all sin and death.

Psalm 59

Deliver Me from My enemies O My Abba: defend Me from all that would rise up against Me.

Deliver Me from the schemes of those who are trusting in their works, who with violence try to preserve the life of their flesh.

For they are just waiting to ambush Me and take My life; powerful men in the flesh, they seek to kill me though I have done them no harm;

They are quick to shed My blood though they find no guilt in Me; Awake to save Me Abba, and behold;

It is You Abba; The Lord God My defender; the giver of life; who will deliver Me from the enemy; and My life from the grave; and will visit all people and all nations: taking vengeance and having no pity on that which was bringing the fruit of death to them.

They return at evening barking out threats and going about the city.

Insults pour out of their mouths; they mock with their lips; saying, who will save you now?

But You Abba; laugh, knowing how You will deliver Me and come and destroy the death that they are experiencing.

It is by strength of Your hand Abba that I will be delivered; for You are My defense;

You Abba are the God of everlasting kindness, You will not allow Me to see corruption; visiting thousands with Your goodness and truth; In Me shall they see Your desire upon the enemy;

Slay them not; but give them over to what is in their heart; that they might see and not forget what is causing them to suffer; O Abba My deliverer;

For in the corruption of their mouth and the cursing of their lips, they allow themselves to be taken with pride; bringing them to a fall;

Consume them in Your passion to give them Your life; consume them with Your Spirit; that they may not perish; but that all would know that Your wisdom Abba rules over all and is far above any in the earth.

And let them return at evening; give them up to murmuring and make noise all around the city.

Give them over to labor to have life by their own strength; and to looking to the world to find their food for life that they may see that it never satisfies;

But I will sing of Your strength Abba; I will tell of Your everlasting kindness; speaking an eternal word for all people and all nations; for You Abba are My defense and My refuge against the day when the death in the world tried to tell Me I lacked life;

In You O Abba, My strength; does My life and immortality at Your right hand proclaim to all people that You will also defend and preserve their life; O Abba, You are the God of everlasting kindness.

Psalm 60

O Abba, You have rejected the works of man's hands; which brings destruction upon them to Your displeasure; O Abba, let Us reconcile them back to You.

You have shaken the foundations of the world; breaking it to pieces: heal the hearts of Your people; for they are afflicted.

You have shown them hard things; so that they might stand in awe of the works of Your hands and not their own; so that they might drink of the Word of life; and not destruction.

You have given Me; as a sign to those who trust in You Abba.

You have given an eternal word to them that worship You; that in Me, the only truth about them would be on display; the work You will do to deliver them from death; Selah.

That Your beloved may be delivered from death; saved by Your right hand; by hearing the Word You have declared in My resurrection.

I rejoice Abba that in Me, have You promised to give them Your life as an inheritance.

And that the glory they see in Me will utterly destroy any word that the world could speak about them; And they will be strengthened with the hope revealed in Me; Abba's teaching and instruction unto life;

This word washes men's heart clean from trusting in the works of their own hands; bringing peace and rest in seeing the work of Abba to conquer death and give them His life in Me;

Who will bring me into the strong city? Who can save Me from this body of death and give Me new life?

It is You O Abba; who has shown us that the works of our own hands bring death and destruction; but the works of Your hand will deliver us from death and give us life.

Only You Abba have the words of eternal life; the word in the world is emptiness and death;

But through the word that You have spoken in Me, Abba, will men receive strength; in seeing how You have conquered death.

Psalm 61

O Abba, You heard Me when I cried, inclining unto Me in My affliction.

From the ends of the earth have I cried to You; and when My heart was sick and death was pressing in on Me; You saved Me lifting Me up to glory and immortality at Your right hand.

For You Abba are My dwelling place and I am Yours; You protected Me from the enemy; conquering death;

When I cried Abba, into Your hands do I trust My life; You clothed Me with Your life and immortality forever;

For You Abba, have heard My cry and in Me; did You fulfill Your promise of eternal life; the thing You have desired for all men; and You have given Me an inheritance; that all can behold and trust in the certainty of the same;

You have set Me as King to reign in righteousness; forever; declaring the justice of God; a life without end.

I will abide at Your right hand forever Abba; in grace and truth; and eternal life; which You promised and prepared before the world began;

I call upon Your name; I will praise Your name forever Abba; for My life at Your right hand is a living word, testifying forevermore that He who promised is faithful.

Psalm 62

With certainty do I rest in knowing that it is You Abba who preserves and protects My life; for I am fully persuaded that life and immortality are only found in You.

You are My strength and salvation from all that seeks to destroy My life; a foundation that is not moved by the word death has tried to speak to Me.

O death how long do you think you can attack man? You shall be slain, all of you, like a tottering fence you will fall.

Those taken captive by you have conspired to keep Me from being exalted; they delight in lies; they speak flattering things to My face but in secret they slander My name.

Into Your hands do I trust My life Abba; for in You is where I find My confident expectation of life.

You are My strength and salvation from all that seeks to destroy My life; A foundation that is not moved by the word death has tried to speak to Me.

In You alone Abba will I find salvation from death and corruption and be exalted to Your right hand; You are My strength and My safety Abba.

Let Us speak a word to all people that they can trust You Abba with their life; seeing their testimony in You delivering Me from the grave.

Certainly, the sons of men have no ability to give themselves life; and men who think more highly than they ought, tell lies; leaving you with empty promises;

Trust not in them or lust after life in your strength; laboring and toiling in vain; if riches come to you, don't set your heart upon them;

Abba has spoken once in Me; listen and keep on hearing these things; by strength of His hand is your salvation;

And unto Abba does goodness and kindness belong; giving to every man who's heart is persuaded by the word He has spoken in Me; the same life and immortality they see at His right hand.

Psalm 63

O Abba, You are My God; in You is My desire day by day. My flesh longs to drink of Your incorruptible life in a dry land filled with death and corruption.

To see Your power and Your glory revealed in Me; inside of human flesh; with the glory I had with You before the world.

For Your loving kindness is far above the life and the suffering of this present world; My lips continually speak well of You Abba;

In declaring Your name Abba and speaking of Your eternal life; will I magnify the strength of Your hand and Your name, forevermore.

My soul is only satisfied with the incorruptible word of Your life Abba; it nourishes and strengthens Me and all those who see it declared in Me; with overflowing joy do I speak Your heart from My lips;

When I remember You and Your promise to give Me Your life; My heart is fully persuaded day and night;

Because You are My helper and My deliverer; by strength of Your hand will I be delivered from death and corruption and will I rejoice.

My life is in You Abba and You in Me; at Your right hand do You hold Me forevermore;

But the enemy who seeks to destroy My life; will perish; and those who reject Your life Abba, will bringing destruction upon themselves by the very sword that they wield, being devoured by the iniquity in their heart;

But I do rejoice, trusting You Abba with My life; speaking an eternal word to all people; that You will reveal in them, the same glory they see in Me, being raised up from the dead and seated at Your right hand in glorified human flesh and bone; triumphing over death and putting an end to the lies that it brought.

Psalm 64

O Abba, You hear Me cry in My affliction; Your life delivers Me from the fear of death;

Keeping Me safe from the word that I lack life; and from the crowd animated by the corrupt thinking death brings;

Those under the reign of death sharpen their tongues like a sword; to shoot their bitter words like arrows;

Waiting for an opportunity to ambush the righteous; they strike with no regard for man or God;

Conspiring together to bring misery; setting snares in secret, in hopes they surprise their victim.

They search to destroy the just; accomplishing it through false witness; revealing the exceedingly deep corruption that death has brought to their minds;

But You Abba, will destroy death with one arrow; suddenly slaughtering it with one blow;

So shall the way that animated the unjust collapse upon itself; all that see it will flee;

All those who see and believe the work that Abba has declared in Me to destroy death; shall consider themselves also risen together with Me;

The ones who see how Abba has rescued them from death and given them His life; the same life they see in Me, will rejoice and be glad; trusting Him to bring forth the same glory and immortality in them.

Psalm 65

Perfect praise waits for You, O Abba, in Me, Your holy place; and unto You have I placed My trust; calling upon Your name before the congregation.

You heard Me when I called; O Abba; and unto You shall all be gathered together;

Though the wisdom of the world stands against Me; You Abba will triumph over it; destroying sin and conquering death;

Blessed is the man who hears Me, Your word of eternal life and it causes him to approach You being fully persuaded of Your everlasting love and kindness; that he might dwell in You and You in him: he shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house Abba; and he shall be Your holy temple.

By awesome works of righteousness; saving My life from the grave and corruption; have You answered O Abba, My salvation; providing a confident hope to all people near and far;

Which by Your strength Abba have I been seated at Your right hand with power in the resurrection;

Which word is able to quiet the hearts of those who were under the sway of death and the groaning of the people;

Those also who have dwelt in fear can see Your judgement and rejoice.

You Abba have visited the earth, watering it with Your word made flesh in Me; greatly blessing all who drink; a river of living water that springs into everlasting life; You prepared and provided My body as their food for life.

You rain abundantly on those of high and low degree; softening soil of their hearts and bringing forth a harvest;

You surround the year with Your goodness; and Your paths drip with abundance of Your life;

Dripping even on dry land and bringing forth fruit and green leaves; all the hills of the earth rejoice on every side.

The pastures are clothed with large flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn and grain; all are at rest and abundantly satisfied with Your goodness, they sing forth Your praises and declare Your goodness Abba.

Psalm 66

May all people and all nations shout for joy unto You Abba;

Singing forth as they behold the abundance and the fullness of Your glory revealed in Me; You have spoken most eloquently of Your good opinion of them, making their praise and thanksgiving glorious;

Let all see and say unto You Abba; How awesome are Your works; through Your power to conquer death; have You subdued all the ways that stand contrary to Your teaching and instruction unto life;

So that all the nations of the earth can be gathered unto You; singing to You and Your name;

Come and behold in Me the work that Abba has done to gather the children of men unto Himself;

Just as Abba turned the sea into dry land; so that the children of Israel went through on foot; do we also rejoice in Abba delivering us from death;

He has set Me at His right hand to rule forever; His eyes have always been upon all people; the just and the unjust; those who reject Him trusting in themselves shall not be exalted;

All blessing and life come from You Abba; sing His praise all you people; and declare His goodness to all who will hear it;

You alone are the giver of life and You will not leave Me in the grave or allow Me to see corruption;

So that You O Abba might refine the hearts of Your beloved; to trust in You and not themselves;

Though death bought them into bondage; and laid affliction upon them;

Trampling, abusing and making slaves of Your beloved; In Me Abba have You brought them out, revealing that life and immortality are only found in You;

I go into Your presence with My blood; declaring You are the only source of the life revealed in Me, in the resurrection;

Which My lips have spoken in crying out to You in My affliction;

This is the finest and best offering that Your heart Abba has always desired; a sweet smelling fragrance unto You; that all might call upon Your name and live;

May all come and hear what You have done to rescue My life from the grave and set Me at Your right hand;

I cried unto You in My affliction and worshiped You with My tongue;

If I had exalted My own ability to save Myself from death, I would have never cried out for all to hear;

But I did cry out, and Abba heard Me; and He has answered by raising Me up to glory and immortality in the resurrection;

Blessing glory and honor unto You Abba; You never turned away from Me but You heard My prayer, saving Me in My affliction; nor have You ever wavered from the hope of the everlasting life and immortality You had for Me and all Your beloved.

Psalm 67

O Abba, You are merciful to Me, and all Your beloved; You have spoken in Me with the highest speech and with great and precious promises of Your life; let Your face shine upon Me in adoration;

Testifying of Your way unto life upon the earth; that salvation from death and corruption is revealed in Me, in the resurrection, for all people and all nations to behold;

And seeing Your life and immortality manifest in Me, let them call upon Your name Abba; let all people call upon You with perfect praise;

O let all people find a new song of joy in their heart; for You Abba have judged them as Your very own; not willing that any should perish but persuading them of Your sure promise of life in Me; the way unto life for all people and nations;

And seeing Your life and immortality manifest in Me, let them call upon Your name Abba; let all people call upon You with perfect praise;

Then Abba shall the hope of Your life revealed in Me bring forth a harvest in the earth; that will bring many sons to glory; blessing them with Your incorruptible life;

Abba, You have spoken a sure word in Me; that all those who call upon Your name shall be saved from death and corruption; and that all the earth might see Your great works and stand in awe of You.

Psalm 68

Let Your Holy name and Your Spirit be exalted as the only source of life Abba, when I arise in Your glory and immortality; conquering death in human flesh; scattering all Your enemies, let the enemies that despise You and molest Your beloved flee from before You.

As smoke is driven away as a mist, so drive away all that could harm Your beloved Abba; as wax melts before fire; so let death and the way that causes men's hearts to labor and toil for life perish at Your presence Abba; the One who serves us with life.

Let those who see their inability to give themselves life and cry out to You, be glad and delight, seeing the life You came to freely give them made immortal flesh in Me. Abba, let them rejoice before You forever; seeing the life their hearts have always longed for with joy that exceeds all they could ask or imagine.

Let our hearts make music and sing of Your name Abba; seeing the life You have exalted Me to at Your right hand; there is none like You Abba; the One who was, who is and who is to come; rejoicing is before You;

A father to orphans, a defender of the widow; and all those who are alone and without strength in the earth; are You Abba in Me, Your holy habitation.

Abba You have set Me a son over My own house; wherein all can dwell in Your life and love; giving liberty to those who were bound by death; but the ones who reject His life dwell in a scorched and dry land.

O Abba, when You sent Me before the people when You did march through the wilderness;

The earth trembled in awe and the heavens dripped of Your goodness; even the mountains acknowledged Your presence Abba; the God of all Israel;

You O Abba, sent Me to rain on them abundantly, confirming the promise of Your inheritance; even in their weakness;

Your life abides in Me; O Abba, wherein You have prepared Your goodness to those who are without strength;

Abba has spoken a word in Me; the Lord; the Word of life; and all those who hear it and declare it shall co-share in the abundance of My life;

All the princes and powers of this world did flee; and those who find their home in My house, the good Shepherd; shall share in My inheritance;

Though you were laid down in the sheepfold to be slaughtered; yet now you gleam like a dove with wings of silver and gold;

When Abba spoke in Me, the kings of the earth that tried to tarnish man's image scattered; and He washed His beloved white as snow;

I am the high hill wherein Abba dwells, a high hill as a hill with many peaks, where in You Abba desire to dwell;

Why leap you for joy, you high hills? Because you are His beloved; the hill that Abba desires to live in forever;

Abba, I am Your chariot; gathering twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands; to dwell among them; a high hill set apart for You;

You Abba have seated Me on high, at Your right hand; leading those who were all their lives held captive to death and the fear of death to freedom; gathering them unto Yourself; and I have received gifts for all men; yes, even for the rebellious that You Abba; the One who is, who was and who is to come; might dwell among them.

Speak well of Abba; who has spoken well of you in Me, the Word of life; that conquered death; and day by day can persuade your heart of the life and immortality He revealed in Me;

Abba, is the giver of life; and the One who has served you with His life in Me; and unto Me has He given the keys of death and the grave;

And Abba has crushed the head of His enemy, death; and destroyed the reasoning of the one that continues to reject His life for the life they can give themselves;

Abba said, let Us renew them again unto life; wherein I will declare they are My children; pulling them from depths of darkness and death that was against them;

O Abba that I might taste death for all, leaving it in the grave; shutting the mouth of the accuser;

They have seen Your works; O Abba; even the work You performed in Me; Abba My King; when I declared Your name before the great congregation;

The singers went before Me; announcing My coming; the players followed after playing tambourine; like a bride seeing the coming their groom with great joy;

Speak well of Abba, who has spoken well of You; even in Me; declaring before the congregation that Abba was the only source of life and immortality;

All who find their testimony in Me, the Son; the testimony wherein all sin and death are subject; shall in the day of affliction find the same praise on their lips; whereby they call upon Your name Abba; and do no work but rest in You being exalted to Your right hand;

Abba has promised and declared that by strength of Me, His right hand, will you receive strength; and be exalted to glory and immortality; which He has promised since before the world began; and brought to light in Me;

Because You Abba have set Me, the Son over My own house wherein all can dwell in the complete fullness of Your life; shall kings call upon Your name; in the highest praise;

Rebuking the way of those that ignore Abba's life for the life their own hand can give them; giving them over to their own passion until the proud might find humility; You have scattered that which harms Your beloved;

Princes shall come out from darkness into Your light and life Abba; and those in dry lands will find living water to drink in Me;

Sing praises unto Abba; seeing the life He revealed in Me, all you kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises, calling on the name of the One who has conquered death with eternal life.

For Abba has exalted Me to sit in immortal flesh at His right hand in the heavens; which were of old; declaring the Word that was from the beginning; with power according to the spirit of holiness; the life He set apart for us and made immortal flesh in the resurrection from the dead;

All glory and strength belongs to Him; who has strengthened Me; at His right hand in the heavens; that His strength might dwell in all;

O Abba, You are most awesome; revealing in Me the life You have always desired for Your beloved; to dwell with them forever; serving them with Your life, strength and power forevermore; Blessed be Abba in whom all blessings come.

Psalm 69

Save Me O Abba; in You alone do I trust to deliver Me; for troubles are come unto Me and My soul is sorrowful even unto death.

I am sinking deep into a pit where there is no way out; and the depths of it have begun to overflow Me;

I have no more strength to cry out to You Abba; My throat is dry; My eyes grow dim while I wait on You Abba, My redeemer.

They that hate and seek to destroy Me for no reason, seem innumerable; they are mighty against Me, blinded to the truth that I am not their enemy: I will restore sight to those whom death has blinded.

O Abba, You know the folly of men's hearts and their sin is not hid from You; that You might destroy it.

Let not those that trust in You Abba; ever be ashamed for My name sake; let not those who seeing My testimony and call upon Your name ever be disappointed; O Abba;

For Your name's sake have I borne their shame; trusting in Your promise to clothe Me with life Abba; while standing naked in the face of the enemy; death.

They treated Me as one in whom they had no friendship or regard; even My mother's children disowned Me;

Your burning desire to clothe upon Me and all Your beloved Your life and immortality has consumed Me; and the shame of those in death; laboring to be clothed upon with life by their works; their grief, sorrow and shame toward You Abba, have fallen upon Me.

When I cried out to You Abba in My affliction; not considering My own ability to save Myself from death; they considered Me smitten of You Abba;

Making nothing of My ability to clothe Myself with life and immortality; My testimony has become the Word for all people;

Those who placed their trust in their own works; did speak against Me and judged Me as forsaken; and the drunkards mocked Me in song;

But as for Me; My cry and My prayer is to You, O Abba, You have heard My cry and in the fullness of time You answered; with an abundance of Your grace and truth; in My salvation;

Delivering Me from the pit that I sink not and perish; delivering Me from those that hated Me without cause, from the deep waters;

Letting not my heart be overflowed by troubles that they might swallow Me up, leaving Me not in the grave to perish or to see corruption;

You hear Me O Abba; for Your loving kindness is only good; answering Me according to the greatness and abundance of Your tender mercy and grace;

You hid not Your face from Me; but heard Me when I cried; in My affliction You heard and answered Me speedily;

Drawing nigh unto Me and My life to redeem it: delivering Me from death;

You have known My reproach and My shame; Those who stand firmly against Me as the way unto life are before You;

In My distress I was weak having lost all strength and I found no one who took pity or gave comfort to Me among them, to help Me;

Instead, they gave Me poison for My food saying "save Yourself"; and for My thirst they gave Me vinegar to drink instead of pure water;

Let the food they have been eating for life; which is the works of their own hands; become a snare before them: and the thing that they expect to bring them peace, let it become a trap;

A veil that darkens their eyes of understanding, that they see not; giving them up to despair; unable to find peace in their flesh;

Pour out Your wrath upon all that which is contrary to Your life, and let Your wrathful anger take hold of it to destroy it;

Making its house desolate; with no one left to dwell in it;

For they that persecute and reject the One who bore our griefs and our sorrows; mock the One who was wounded for our transgression;

They will add iniquity to their iniquity: not allowing themselves come to You for life; having condemned themselves;

For those who love not Your life will be blotted out of the book of the living; and not written with the righteous;

But I am poor in spirit; let Your salvation; O Abba, be revealed in raising Me up and setting Me at Your right hand;

I have praised and spoken well of Your name Abba; by calling upon Your name; with song and thanksgiving;

This is the offering that pleases You Abba; better than ox or bulls;

Those with no ability to give themselves life, will see it and rejoice and be glad; causing their hearts to rest in the life and immortality You revealed in Me; Abba;

For You Abba hear the cry of those who call upon Your name; and He will despise not those who trust in My testimony;

Let heaven and earth be joined in praise of Him and everything that moves therein;

For Abba will save from death all those who call upon His name; raising them up from corruption; that they may dwell in the house of the Lord forever; coheirs of His life as their possession;

All who find their testimony in Me, the son; shall possess the same life and immortality as their inheritance; and they that love His life will dwell in Him and He in them and He will forever be with them.

Psalm 70

Make haste, O Abba to save and deliver Me; make haste to help Me in My trouble;

Let all that seeks to hurt and destroy Me and any of Your beloved be made desolate, and all those who seek to destroy My life be turned back from their way;

Let iniquity bring its certain reward, turning back in disappointment those who rejoice in evil.

Let all those that seek You be glad and rejoice in You, never being disappointed; and let those who love Your life and salvation constantly magnify Your name Abba;

But I am poor not possessing the ability to clothe upon myself with Your life and immortality: make haste unto Me, O Abba: You are My helper and My deliverer; O Abba My Lord, make no delay.

Psalm 71

In You, O Abba, do I find My rest; In You will I never be disappointed or ashamed.

You deliver My life, safely hiding Me inside Your incorruptible life; where there is freedom from the sting of the death and corruption that is in the world; always inclining Your ear to Me; to save Me.

You are My strong refuge; where I continually find rest; You have promised to save Me; for You Abba are My mighty fortress, My firm foundation, My strength, My shield and My defender.

You deliver Me, O Abba, from the wickedness that is in the world through death; and from the cruelty of those animated by it;

For You are My hope, O Abba, My Lord and My shepherd; You are My rest from My youth.

By You was I nurtured and sustained from the womb; You art He that severed Me from My mother's womb and set Me apart unto Your life; to reveal You Abba; speaking well of You continually;

I am a sign and a wonder to those who are suffering at the hands of death; testifying of You as My only hope and refuge;

Let My word and My testimony be filled with Your praise; continually speaking well and honoring You;

Cast Me not away in My old age; or forsake Me not when death surrounds Me and I have no strength;

And My enemies speak against Me; and they take counsel against Me;

Saying together that You Abba have forsaken Me; and that there is none to save Me;

O Abba; be not far from Me; O My God; make haste to save Me in My affliction;

Let all that seek to harm Me be confounded and their ways brought to nothing; and let the way that brought destruction to all Your beloved; collapse under its own weight when Your life is revealed;

I will only hope in You continually and speak well of You more and more.

My testimony shall speak an eternal word revealing the awesome wonders of Your indestructible life and Your salvation, putting it on display in Me, for all to see; for man knows not the depths thereof;

I will go forth in Your strength and not My own; I will speak of Your promise of life to all people; for there is only life in You;

Abba, You have taught Me from My youth; and from that time have I declared Your wonderful works;

Now also when I am old and death tries to come to Me; it has nothing in Me; For My life is hid inside Your life O Abba; and You will never leave or forsake Me; My testimony shows forth Your strength and salvation to this generation and all those to come;

O Abba; In Your strength and ability to save Me from death and raise Me to Your life and immortality; exalting Me to Your right hand; You have done a marvelous work; O Abba, there is none like You.

You saw Me in My affliction; and when I cried You heard Me and quicken Me again; You brought Me up again from the grave;

You increased My greatness; and comforted Me on every side as a testimony for all people;

In Me; You are spoken well of in all the earth; declaring Your grace and truth; O Abba; You have spoken well of all people in Me; putting a new song in their hearts; setting Me apart; the Holy One of Israel; in whom You dwell with the power of an endless life in immortal flesh;

You cause My lips to sing praises unto Your name; and My life which You have redeemed, to rejoice;

The word You have spoken and was made immortal flesh in Me, has revealed Your life and immortality to all people; for You have confounded the logic and consumed the death that sought to destroy Your beloved.

Psalm 72

O Abba, My God and My King, You have given Me Your judgments; revealing Your life and immortality in and through Me Your son;

Declaring Your justice for all people by the life revealed in Me; in immortal flesh; and to those who see they have no ability to clothe themselves with life, Your judgment to give them the kingdom as a gift.

Your judgments bring peace to Your people and assurance to their hearts by the life revealed in Me in immortal flesh and bone;

Bringing justice to those who do not look to their own ability but rest in You Abba; to save them from the death that has oppressed them;

They shall worship You until the moon and the sun pass away;
throughout all generations;

You shall pour out Your Spirit upon all flesh; like rain that covers the earth;

I shall reign at Your right hand, Abba; bringing an abundance of peace on earth until the heavens be no more;

My dominion shall be from sea to sea, and over all the earth;

They that abide as strangers in dry land shall see Me and bow down;
and sin and death will bend its knee to My dominion;

Distant kings shall pay tribute; offering gifts;

And all the kings of the earth shall fall down before Me; and people from every tongue and every nation will worship Me; Your name's sake;

For in Me; shall You deliver those who cry out to You in their affliction; and also those who look to You Abba, seeing that they possess no ability to save themselves;

You shall save those to the uttermost who see they have no ability and those who cry out in their weakness; saving their life from destruction;

In Me; You shall redeem their life from death and from the lies that have brought fear and torment to their hearts; their lives are precious in Your sight Abba;

And they shall find their life in Me; who reigns at Your right hand; in whom all Your glory has been given; who continually makes intercession in their hearts; and daily will they see My life and My testimony; the word Abba, that You have spoken in Me has spoken well of them;

Abba, in Me, You have brought an abundance of meat into the storehouse; by seating Me at Your right hand; the fruit of My life shall be like a wave and peace offering; And they that abide in My life and My testimony shall prosper like the grass upon the earth.

You have given Me a name that shall endure forever; and people from every tongue and every nation shall call Me blessed forevermore;

I have spoken well of You Abba; the God of Israel; You have done wondrous things in and through Me;

You have spoken well of and glorified Me, Your name sake; forever; Abba; and let also the whole earth be glorified immortal; Amen and Amen.

These are Your words and Your prayers for Me, Abba.

Psalm 73

Most certainly Abba is good to all His children; and to such as with a pure heart see themselves as His sons and daughters resting in Him to give them His life as an inheritance.

But men's feet were stumbling at the truth; their steps had gone out of the way;

Becoming envious of the foolish; seeing what seemed like prosperity in those who feeling orphaned in the earth; and seek to provide themselves with life;

Their life appears free from the pangs of death; it looks good from the outside; their strength seems firm;

They don't look troubled like other men; neither do they appear afflicted;

Therefore, pride grips them and takes hold of their hearts; clothing themselves in their own sufficiency brings bitterness and maliciousness toward all people;

The lust for what they can produce with their own works is ever before them; always desiring more substance than one could ever wish for but never being satisfied;

They are corrupt; and perishing by their own hands; they speak wickedly about those who are oppressed by the death and corruption in the world; speaking with lofty words; laying burdens upon the afflicted that no man can bear;

Their mouth is filled with the poison of asp which is planted in the earth;

Therefore, do all those who follow after that same way always return, having their cups completely drained by them; the greedy;

And they say, does God even know us in our affliction? and how can we know the Most High seeing He is far from us?

Seeing that the ungodly seem to prosper in the world; increasing in worldly riches;

Causing men to say that it seems useless to trust God; and it has profited them nothing to look for any good thing from Him;

For all day long and each morning am I plagued by affliction and death;

If I speak these thoughts I have, surely, I would offend the children of men;

For even when I thought to ponder this, it was painful for Me;

Until You Abba gave Me understanding and showed Me the end of these things;

Surely, You did judge this way that seemed to look prosperous to men in the world as death and how that it only leads to destruction;

How it brings utter desolation in a moment; consuming upon a man with fear and torment;

Like waking from a dream of their prosperity, only to see they are totally bankrupt of life; running in fear to their own destruction; O Abba; in this You will have no pleasure;

So, O son of man, though your hearts be grieved; and pained in your deepest parts;

Feeling foolish and far from Him for having such thoughts;

Nevertheless, know this; Abba is continually with you; upholding you by the word He has spoken about you in Me at His right hand;

His Spirit does guide Me in all truth and counsel; swallowing up My death and revealing Me in His glory in the resurrection; as a testimony;

Who is there in heaven and earth whereby a man can receive eternal life but You Abba; the only immortal; there is none on the earth whose life I desire but Yours;

My flesh and My heart will fail; but You Abba are My life and My strength and My inheritance forever;

But those who go running after other gods, will feel far from You Abba and feeling naked and afraid will cowering away in fear and perish;

It is a good thing for Me and all Your beloved to draw near to You Abba; for My testimony has declared Your work; bringing the certainty of Your life and immortality to the hearts of Your children; that You are their inheritance.

Psalm 74

O Abba, why do men say that You have rejected them forever? Why do they think Your anger is against them?

Are they not Your beloved, which You purchase of old; to give Yourself as their inheritance, to redeem them from death and corruption, seating them in Me at Your right hand; where they can dwell in You and You in them;

Lift Me up that I might crush the deceptions and desolations under My feet; even all that the enemy has done to bring labor and toil in the earth;

For the enemy does roar in the midst of Your congregation; speaking lies and pointing to death as their proof;

Like a famed woodsman wielding his axe upon the thick trees; the enemy has brought down Your beloved, and marred their image;

Death has defiled Your beloved and cast them to the ground; intending to destroy all of them and profane Your name in their hearts, Abba;

They are blind to the truth that they are Your beloved; they cannot see anyone who will speak on Your behalf; nor do they have any hope that their affliction will ever end;

O Abba, how long will the enemy harass and molest Your beloved and bring defamation to Your name;

Turn not away Your hand; even Me, Your right hand, plucked from the midst of Your bosom.

For You Abba are My King; and from the beginning, You have been working salvation in the midst of the earth;

You have divided the seas by Your strength, breaking the head of the dragon in the waters; so, will You destroy death;

Just as You broke the head of Pharaoh in the sea; Your great works in Me are the food for life for those who in the day of affliction, rest in You and Your ability to overcome their death;

You broke opened the springs and the rushing water; and You dried up rivers that never run dry, providing safe passage;

You reign over the day and the night also; You have prepared Me; the light and the life of all men;

You have set all the borders of the earth; and appointed times and seasons;

Remember this; death has beaten and accused Your beloved; O Abba, causing them to curse and reject Your name;

O deliver not the life of Your beloved to be overcome by the corruption death and in the earth; rather let Us not forget those who seeing they have no ability to give themselves life look to You Abba;

Beholding the promise of eternal life in Me; for the world is filled with the way that brings corruption and death;

O Abba, let not those afflicted by sin and death in the earth; who call upon Your name ever be ashamed; let all those who see they are powerless to raise themselves up from death; look to You to receive the same blessing and life they see in Me, as their inheritance;

Arise O Abba; defending and declaring Your great name in raising Me to life and immortality; remember how it was death that caused men to curse and reject You daily.

Forget not and have no repentance to utterly destroy the voice of the enemy, death, that told Your beloved they lacked life and caused their hearts to labor and toil continually, bringing it to an end.

Psalm 75

To You, O Abba, do we give thanks, to You Abba do I give thanks for Your extraordinary works manifested in Me declare Your name: that I am in You and You in Me;

When I receive all Your beloved unto Myself, I will judge righteously;

For the earth and all its inhabitants are in turmoil and disheartened under the reign of death; Let Us establish Your righteous judgment in Me, seated at Your right hand;

I said unto the fool, boast not in yourself; and to those whose hearts are filled with laboring and toiling; exalt not your strength to save yourself;

Lift not your strength and opinion above God in arrogance; speaking an unrighteous judgment with a harden heart;

For the true judgment that leads to life doesn't come from the west, the east or from below;

But Abba is the true judge; He divided the light from the darkness; putting the one that leads to death down and exalting the way unto life in Me, at His right hand;

For in Me, the hand of Abba is His righteous judgment, and though the wine of that cup is sweet to His beloved, of the finest quality, and measured out the same to all; those who drink with a heart in opposition to the righteous judgment of God, will drink and bring damnation unto themselves;

But I will declare forever, His righteous judgment to give you His life as your inheritance; I will sing praises unto Your name Abba.

I will take an ax to the root of all that exalts itself against the judgment of God, hewing it down; and those who find their strength in Him to give them blessing and life as a gift shall be exalted to the same life they see in Me, at His right hand.

Psalm 76

In Me, the Son is God known as Abba: His name is great to all His beloved;

And also, in the city of our God has He brought peace, in Me His dwelling place on the holy mount;

There He broke the power of death; the bow and the fiery darts of the enemy; breaking their strength and might, disarming the enemy's weapons of warfare;

You O Abba have shined Your light and Your life in Me; Your glory is most excellent, overcoming the enemy;

Whose might was plundered and has sunk into a dead sleep with no more strength left in his hands;

At Your rebuke O Abba, both the chariot and the horse of the enemy are swallowed up in the deep;

In You Abba, even You do I behold Your works in amazement; for no enemy can stand against Your judgment when Your anger is kindled against it;

You have caused the dead to hear Your voice and Your judgment from heaven, and the earth stood still in awe;

When You raised Me up in judgment; saving all those who saw they had no strength to give themselves life but looked to You Abba;

Surely, the passion of a man for life will find rest and thanksgiving in You, and in the memory of that passion will he find his strength in You Abba;

With joy and thanksgiving have I called upon Your name Abba; let all that see the work You have done in Me to give them blessing and life as a gift; call upon Your name in perfect praise; standing in awe of Your great love for them Abba.

For You have cast out the prince of this world; having spoiled that which was against us; restoring the way unto life.

Psalm 77

I cried “Abba” with a loud voice; and You heard Me; even in the midst of My affliction;

In the day of My trouble I cried out to You Abba: and in the night I sought only Your comfort, and refused to find comfort in the world;

But I remembered Your promise Abba and I called out to You in My complaint, My spirit was overwhelmed;

Yet You set Your joy ever before My eyes even when I was so troubled that I could not speak;

I considered all the mighty works You have done in the days of old, the years of ancient times.

I called to remembrance how Your breath moved over darkness saying let there be light; This is My song in the midst of My affliction; I meditated on and searched the heart of man in my spirit;

Will the Lord cast us off forever? and does He not look favorable on us anymore?

Is His mercy gone forever? Have His promises failed?

Has He forgotten to be gracious? has His in anger shut up his tender mercies? Certainly not!

And I said this in My infirmity so all might know; that in Me, His right hand is a memorial and a testimony of the Most High for them;

How I remembered and trusted in the works and the promises of Abba that were from the beginning;

That all might also behold Your works and talk of Your doings in Me;

Seeing Your way, O Abba is found in Me; in whom You have shown Yourself a great God who saves to the uttermost;

You are the God who has done wonderful works in Me, and has declared Your strength in Me; in the midst of the great congregation;

In Me, Your arm, have You redeemed all people; the sons of Jacob and Joseph;

Like the waters of the Red sea; the Jordan saw You in Me; O Abba and trembled; the deep also was troubled;

There the heavens were opened and Your Spirit lighted upon Me; the skies sent out a sound and Your word went forth;

The sound of Your voice came from heaven; this is My beloved son in whom I am well pleased; the light of the world and the earth trembled and shook in awe;

You revealed the way unto life, the faith, in Me; when the way was yet unknown;

You lead Your beloved like a flock through the sea, through the valley of the shadowed by death; as their Good Shepherd; in Me, the way unto life at Your right hand.

Psalm 78

Listen intently, O My beloved, to the way unto life Abba has revealed in Me; His law; incline Your ears to the words He has spoken from My mouth;

I open My mouth in parables; to utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world;

Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us, but their meaning had yet been revealed;

But now are revealed unto you, My beloved, showing to the generations to come the goodness, strength and wonderful works that Abba has done in Me;

For He has established a testimony in Me; and appointed Me; the author and finisher of the way unto life and immortality; and lest they forget, He told them to teach and declare these things to their sons and their daughters and their children's children;

That in the generations to come all might know Him; even that the children which should be born would declare these things to their children;

So that their hope would be in God and His grace and not their own strength; but that they would not forget the works that Abba has done in Me;

And might not be as their fathers were, a stubborn and rebellious generation; who's hearts were not set on the works of God and His grace to give them blessing and life as a gift but on their own works;

Who like the children of Ephraim being armed in their own strength, and carrying bows turned back in fear in the day of battle;

They are like those who believe not the promise of God and His strength to give them the promise of eternal life as a gift; refusing to rest and walk in the good work He declared in Me; His law;

And forgot His works and the signs and wonders that He has shown unto them;

Marvelous things has Abba done in Me, freeing all from the bondage of sin and death; like He has done in the sight of their fathers, in leading them out of the bondage in Egypt;

When He divided the sea and caused them to pass through safely; and He made the waters to stand as a heap;

In the daytime also He led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire;

He split the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them water like a gushing spring;

He brought streams out of the rock, and caused waters to flow down like rivers; and all these things did He to persuade them to place their trust and confidence in Him to give them blessing and life as a gift and not in the works of their hands; pointing to the life and inheritance He has given them in Me;

And yet they still believed not; rebelling against the Most High; the only way unto the promise land which is eternal life;

And in the hardness of their heart's they questioned God's integrity to provide them all things for life and Godlikeness; by asking for the food that perishes to fill the lack that death spoke to their hearts;

They staggered at His promise through unbelief and spoke against Him saying: Is God able to feed us in the wilderness?

We know He gave us water from a rock but can He also give us bread and meat?

Therefore Abba heard this and was grieved in His heart; and a fire was kindled against the corrupt logic of lack and death that was coming against His beloved; and His anger was set against it, to bring it to an end;

And because they did not believe that Abba is the One who cares for their lives, they could not go to rest in Him to protect and preserve their lives unto eternal life;

And just as He promised them, so also has He opened the windows of heaven unto all people in Me;

When He rained down the bread from heaven for them to eat; It was speaking of Me, His strength; the true bread from heaven giving life to the world;

Man did eat Abba's food; when they saw He raised up My immortal flesh in the resurrection, the meat that does not perish; that they might be full and satisfied and enter into Abba's rest;

In the wilderness He caused the east wind to blow in the heaven and by His power He brought in the south wind, bringing quail for them to eat;

He rained flesh upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

And He let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

They did eat, and were well filled; but while they were still yet eating, they were filled with the lust of their own hearts; for He gave them over to their own lust;

So that those who ate desiring to find their food for life in the meat that perishes were not estranged from that corrupt wisdom, which is their lust for life through their own strength;

Therefore, the wrath and the judgment of God against that corrupt wisdom that serves men with death manifested in them and has smitten them down, though God had chosen them for life;

For in all these things, they would not repent from their unbelief; and believed not in His wondrous works;

Therefore, their hearts were consumed daily with a striving for life in their own strength with no benefit; and their years filled with labor and annoyances.

When they saw that those who didn't trust in God were smitten by death, they returned and inquired after Him;

And they remembered that God was their salvation and the Most High God, their redeemer;

Nevertheless, they did flatter Him with their lips, but their hearts were filled with the serpent's lies that came out of their mouths;

For their hearts were not resting in Him, neither were they believing in His promise to give them blessing and life by the strength of His hand and not their own;

But Abba, being full of everlasting love and compassion has covered their iniquity that it not destroy them; and has at various times hid His face from their union to the death that animated them;

For He knew that they were but flesh; a wind that passes away and perishes apart from Him;

How often did they stir up His wrath toward that which could destroy them; and grieved His heart in the desert;

Yet, again and again, did they question the integrity of Abba and Me; the Holy One of Israel.

They remembered not His hand, nor the day when He delivered them from the enemy. to know that the hand that led them out of bondage and deliverance from death is found in Me; and not their own hands;

How He worked signs and wonders in Egypt, and His wonders in the field of Naphtali declaring His judgment of the way unto life and against the way leads to death;

When He turned rivers into blood; and water that it could no longer be drank; or bring forth any nourishment for life;

He gave them over to the swarm of flies that were among them, which devoured; and frogs, which destroyed; revealing how trusting in the works of their own hands only serves with death;

And all the works of their hands were eaten up by worms; and their labor destroyed by the locust;

The fruit of their vines were destroyed with hail, and their sycamore trees were cut down.

And their cattle also by hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

Abba has set the fierceness of His anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble; against the enemy and all that seeks to harm His beloved with death, and in giving them over to the imaginations of their own hearts; to see the fruit of death that it serves them with;

He made a way for His wrath to destroy death and work righteousness in Me; and He spared not all the pains and the fruit of death in Me, the Son; but was in Me; reconciling all things unto Himself; giving His judgment against the pestilence and the death that the works of man's hands has brought upon them;

By which works all the firstborn in Egypt were smitten; from the chief of their strength to all the dwellings of Egypt; who trusted not in God and His strength but rather in their own;

But Abba has made a way for all His beloved in Me; leading them out of the bondage of death like a shepherd leading His sheep and guided them in the wilderness like a flock; to the way unto life and immortality;

And so has He led them safely that they feared not but has consumed their enemy in the sea;

And He brought them to the border of the mount; having victoriously redeemed them; in Me, His right hand;

Having cast out the enemy from before their eyes and given them an inheritance; in Me; to live a life free from labor and toil; in tents that they did not pitch;

Yet they still questioned the integrity of the Most High God and kept not His testimony which is written of Me for them;

But like their fathers, turned their back on His teaching and instruction of life; turned instead to lies and deceit;

And they kindled His anger by exalting the works of their hands and to jealousy by looking to other gods who are not gods and who could never serve them with His life;

Hearing this was Abba wroth and greatly disturbed; abhorring the sin in Israel that was coming against His beloved; and that sought to destroy them;

So, in His everlasting kindness did He let them loose; giving them over to their lust to serve other gods and the works of their hands; and He hid His face from their union to death, that their corrupt wisdom was serving them with;

And they exchanged His strength for bondage; and His glory for corruptible images made with hands;

He gave them over to the sword; and to the judgment that living by it was serving them with;

Their strength was consumed by fire; and their lives were left to barrenness;

Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows wept not for them but for their own death;

Then in the fullness of time, as one awakened out of sleep; Abba has spoken in Me; and like a mighty man and with a loud cry;

Abba has smitten the enemy; crushing the serpents head; putting to open shame the corrupt wisdom that brought death;

Moreover, He has rejected the serpent's lies; the works of man's hands, as a way unto life and established that His life cannot be found in tabernacles made with man's hands;

But Abba has chosen Me, His law on mount Zion, the teaching and instruction unto life whereby He has loved us with an everlasting love.

And in Me: has He established His dwelling place at His right hand; the sure hope of His inheritance for His beloved and all the earth forever;

Just as He chose David His servant, and took him from the sheepfolds: From tending the sheep of his youth and He brought him to feed His people, and Israel his inheritance;

So also has He chosen Me to shepherd and feed all people; serving them with the Word of Eternal life, their inheritance; in Me; who is the integrity of and the innocence of Abba's heart; and has guided them in all truth by pouring out His Spirit through Me; the strength of Abba hands.

Psalm 79

O Abba, those who run after other gods to their own hurt, have brought their ways into Your inheritance to defile Your people who are called by Your name, Your holy temple; bringing destruction and laying Jerusalem in heaps.

The dead bodies of Your beloved have become fuel for those who reproach Your name; seeing the flesh of Your saints devoured by beasts;

Their blood is shed like water; with no one left to bury them or to avenge their blood;

Your people who are called by Your name have become a reproach to their neighbors who have not known You; a scorn and derision to those who are round about them;

How long Abba will you hide Your face? Will Your anger burn forever against the way that serves Your beloved with death? Will not Your jealousy burn it up like fire?

Let Us run with fury and the fire of Your passion against the way that brings death, that all people and nations who have not known You would call upon Your name;

For iniquity has devoured Your beloved, and Your house, which is called by Your name, has it made a den of thieves; robbing men of Your inheritance;

O Abba, let us bring an end to iniquity and death and all that is contrary to Your life; where there will be no more remembrance; let Your tender mercies and Your everlasting kindness toward Me in giving Me Your life and immortality as an inheritance; be their sure hope as well: trusting and resting in Your strength and not their own;

Strengthen Me; O Abba My salvation; for the glory of Your name, to deliver men from death and all that sought to harm them; purging their conscience from laboring and toiling for life; giving them Your life as an inheritance; for Your name's sake;

Therefore, should those who run after other gods, that could never conquer their death or serve them with life, say; where is their God? Let You Abba be known to them through Me and My testimony; how that I have avenged their blood; by conquering their death;

Let the groaning for life of those who were held captive in death's reign come before You, and according to the greatness of Your power, preserve their life;

And in Me; render Your judgment against any other way unto life, that the heart of those who have not known You might see that You, Abba have completely removed their death in Me;

So that the sheep of Your pasture Abba, would give thanks to Your name forever; and My life at Your right hand will show forth the glory of Your inheritance to all generations.

Psalm 80

O Abba Shepherd of Israel, You who lead Your children like a flock;
Shine forth Your light in Me; Your dwelling place; speaking through Me, Your Son from between the cherubim, in an empty tomb;

Before the congregation show forth Your strength in Me, to save from death;

Turn their hearts again toward You; O Abba and cause Me; Your face;
to shine upon all people saving them from death;

O Abba, how long will Your passion to preserve their lives with You eternally smoke against the prayers of the people; because of their fornication with the strength contained in their flesh; a union in which You could never be pleased;

You have given them over to their own way which has only filled their bread with sorrow and their drink with tears in great measure;

It brings strife where even their enemies do scoff and laugh among themselves;

Turn their hearts again toward You; O Abba and cause Me; Your face;
to shine upon all people saving them from death;

You have brought Your people out of the bondage of Egypt, casting out the way of the heathen; so have You also promised to save them from the bondage of death, and plant them in Me; Your incorruptible life;

Turning them back from the way that leads unto death; so that My life can take deep root in them, Your garden;

You have spread Your skirt over Your children and have planted them a garden in Me, on a very fruitful hill; by rivers of life-giving waters; where their branches will bear much fruit;

This garden will prosper in Me; the vine, who sends out its branches unto the sea and into the river;

So why have you, O sons of men, forsaken Abba's protection for the life you can have by the strength of your own hands, in a dry and unfruitful land where you will perish?

Apart from Me, the vine Abba will the enemy waste their fruit and the wild beast will devour it;

Let Us gather them unto You Abba; so that they may look upon Me the vine; and the garden which You have planted for them in Me at Your right hand; so that the branch might only find its strength in You Abba, and the way that brought death shall be cut down and burned up; perishing at Your correction in the light of My face;

Let Your hand be upon Me; Your right hand; the son of man; whom you shall glorify with the glory I had with You Abba before the world began;

So that they can behold themselves in Me; seeing Your face shining back at them, and call upon Your name;

Turning their hearts again toward You; O Abba and causing Me; Your face; to shine upon all people saving them from death.
